MEDIA INFORMATION

GENERAL

The Sun Devil Athletics media relations staff understands the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the institution, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. We pride ourselves in being able to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets. Members of the media are encouraged to work with the Sun Devil Football media relations staff to assist in that endeavor. It is not permissible for media members to contact any athletics department administrator, associate, coach or student-athlete directly without working through the media relations department.

PRACTICE POLICIES

Due to the nature of Arizona State game dates this season, practices schedules each week will vary dependent upon that week's game. The ASU media relations office will provide a practice schedule prior to each game week for the media. Media members can observe and shoot the first 45-50 minutes of practice, unless the drill is team related. Following that open viewing period, the members of the media will be escorted out of the facility and reconvene near the end of the practice period for post-practice interviews. Under no circumstances will Periscope technology be permitted.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Interviews are conducted at the end of each practice. Due to high demand, several players and members of the coaching staff might only be available on a limited basis each week. A full availability schedule will be provided to the media each week.

All other interviews must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Under no circumstances are members of the media allowed to contact a student-athlete or member of the coaching staff without first contacting a member of the Media Relations staff. All coaches and student-athletes have been encouraged to check in with the media relations staff and not indulge any interview requests that have not been arranged through the proper channels.

Following home contests, Arizona State will bring several student-athletes to the Dutton Theater for a post-game press conference. Head Coach Todd Graham will follow the student-athletes.

Any members who wish to contact a student-athlete or coach outside of the aforementioned interview periods should contact Thomas Lenneberg (480-965-6594 or Thomas.lenneberg@asu.edu) to arrange a time outside of practice or post-game for interviews.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

Head coach Todd Graham will resume his weekly press conferences each Monday prior to game week. The press conference is tentatively scheduled for 12 p.m. (Noon) Arizona Time each week. When the team practices on Mondays, Coach Graham will not be available following practice.

Following home contests, Arizona State will bring several student-athletes to the Dutton Theater for a post-game press conference. Head Coach Todd Graham will follow the student-athletes.

All press conference will be streamed live via the Pac-12 website at <http://pac-12.com/live/arizona-state-university>. Additionally, ASAP Transcription Services will provide a transcript following each press conference throughout the year that will be made available via TheSunDevils.com and will also be sent to members of the media following each press conference.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for Sun Devil home games for the 2015 football season will be handled online through Sports Systems. For access to the online portal request system, please contact Doug Tammaro (tammaro@asu.edu). For road games, please contact Mark Brand (mark.brand@asu.edu) for more information.

Credentials are granted to authorized working press and Sun Devil Athletics game management and official personnel only.

With the exception of regular beat reporters covering the Sun Devils on a daily basis, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis. Media organization identification and the name of the media member covering the game for that outlet are required for every credential.

Passes are not transferable. Media members that need to alter their original request should do so by contacting Doug Tammaro. Media credential requests must be received 48 hours prior to that week's game to receive consideration.

Sun Devil Athletics and the NCAA prohibits the issuance of press credentials to representatives of any organization that regularly publishes advertising designed to encourage gambling on collegiate sporting events. Further, Sun Devil Athletics will not grant press credentials to any media members that actively promote or encourage gambling on collegiate sporting events, including those that endorse or interview gambling organizations.

Space at Sun Devil Football events is limited. Working space and credentials will be allotted based on the following priority guidelines:

- 1.) Originating television and radio personnel involved in a live broadcast
- 2.) Daily newspapers covering for next-day publication (based on circulation) and wire services/national publications
- 3.) National website reporters writing for postgame articles on television network or historically printed publication websites.
- 4.) Officially recognized Sun Devil Athletics and visiting university student newspapers, publications and news outlets
- 5.) Sun Devil Athletics-approved publications covering the Sun Devils on an exclusive basis
- 6.) Non-originating radio and television personnel reporting on the game. Only the following radio personnel receive consideration for credentials based on space:
 - a.) Phoenix-area radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a sports-based show on a daily basis
 - b.) Beat radio sports directors or reporters covering a visiting team
- 7.) Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game

MEDIA GUIDES/STATISTICS/WEEKLY GAME NOTES

Members of the media may request a physical media guide from the Sun Devil Media Relations office. Weekly and seasonal statistics can also be found through the Sun Devil main page at www.TheSunDevils.com. Statistics, which also appear in the back of this note packet, will be available each week at Coach Graham's Monday press conference and in the press box of Sun Devil Stadium.

In order to receive the weekly notes package, please contact Jeremy Hawkes (jdhawkes@asu.edu) to request to be added to the weekly mailing list.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOGRAPHY

Photographers (still and video) may shoot approximately the first 45-50 minutes of practice, unless the drill is team related. On-camera interviews will be conducted at the end of each practice.

For home games, a photographer work area has been established inside the Carson Student-Athlete Center (first floor). Internet access to transmit files is available in the photography workroom.

Credentials must be worn in plain view throughout the game while on the field and all photographers must adhere to painted lines and instructions given by security personnel and/or Arizona State staff members at all times.

WEEKLY MEDIA TELECONFERENCE

The Pac-12 Football Coaches Weekly Media Teleconference Call will take place each Tuesday during the season. A complete schedule of coaches will be made available following Pac-12 Media Day. The teleconferences will be recorded and available at Pac-12.com that same afternoon of the call. Members of the media may reach out to the Pac-12 (925-932-4411) for the media-only phone number for the teleconference.

IN-GAME STATISTICS

Media should utilize StatMonitr live stats for all the latest statistical information during games. Visit asu.statbroadcast.com for live scoring of all home football games.

MEDIA HIGHLIGHTS POLICY

Highlights include Pac-12 Networks/ESPN/FOX broadcasts and all home hosted non-televised competitions, including those that are live streamed.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for the conference and each of its member schools.

LIVE BROADCASTS

It is not permissible for any non-rights holder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, any live event without the consent of the Sun Devil Athletics Department. Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major news-breaking event and will be communicated in the media advisory for the event.

THIRD-PARTY WEBSITE HIGHLIGHT POLICY

No third party organization may post competition footage of any Pac-12 game or any non-conference home game on its website without a license to the content from the Pac-12 Networks or its licensing partner (XOS Digital), with the exception of news window privileges described below. Third parties are permitted to post video on their websites through the use of the Pac-12 Digital embeddable video player (embed code available at <http://video.pac-12.com>).

NEWS OUTLET HIGHLIGHT POLICY

Certified news outlets may use a maximum of 3 minutes of Pac-12 event footage on their newscasts during the 48-hour news window following the conclusion of included events. If these highlights do not contain a Pac-12 mark, the news outlet must insert "Courtesy of the Pac-12 Conference" over the footage. Highlights may also be posted to certified news providers' websites, but must be removed 48 hours after the conclusion of any included event, unless a license for that footage is obtained from the Pac-12 Conference. Highlights may not be posted to YouTube, Facebook, or other social media properties. Beyond the 48 hour news window, certified news outlets are permitted to use a maximum of 1 minute of footage – on their television newscasts only – for 14 calendar days after the conclusion of the game in question. This policy pertains to the 2013-14 academic year only and is subject to change in subsequent years.

As partners of over 30 years, Arizona State University and Bonneville Phoenix (KTAR News 92.3 FM, Arizona Sports 98.7 FM, ESPN Phoenix 620 AM) have one of the longest running flagship relationships in all of college athletics.

Arizona Sports 98.7 FM will once again serve as the flagship station for Arizona State football and men's basketball broadcasts and the Sun Devil Sports Network. In-season the station will also host weekly 10 minute call in shows with football head coach Todd Graham and men's basketball coach Bobby Hurley.

Football game day broadcasts will consist of a two hour pregame show, along with a one hour postgame show featuring interviews and game analysis.

During the football season, Arizona Sports 98.7 FM will also air the High Octane Hour with head coach Todd Graham. This unique program is hosted by The Voice of the Devils, Tim Healey, along with head coach Todd Graham. Coach Graham regularly invites his players and coaches on the air to share their thoughts on the season. This show will air on either Arizona Sports 98.7 FM or ESPN Phoenix 620 AM depending on the schedule.

Men's basketball broadcasts offer a 30-minute pregame show and a 30-minute postgame program.

When scheduling conflicts occur on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM, Sun Devil programming will be air on ESPN Phoenix 620 AM or KTAR News 92.3 FM. All three of the aforementioned stations boast some of the strongest signals in the Southwest to provide tremendous coverage to Sun Devil fans.

Arizona Sports 98.7 FM provides live and local sports talk throughout the day with the following lineup:

6 A.M. - 10 A.M.:

Doug and Wolf (hosts Ron Wolfley and Doug Franz)

10A.M - NOON:

Off The Edge with Bertrand Berry

NOON - 2 P.M.:

Bickley and Marotta (hosts Dan Bickley and Vince Marotta)

2 P.M. - 6 P.M.:

Burns and Gambo (hosts Dave Burns and John Gambadoro)

In addition to ASU athletics, Arizona Sports 98.7 FM is also the flagship radio home to the Arizona Cardinals (NFL), Phoenix Suns (NBA), Arizona Diamondbacks (MLB) and Arizona Coyotes (NHL).

TIM HEALEY

PLAY-BY-PLAY

The 2015-16 school year will mark Tim Healey's 43rd year in broadcasting, as well as his 18th season as the legendary radio play-by-play voice of Arizona State University football and men's basketball, and 17th season as the radio voice of ASU baseball. Healey replaced the late Tom Dillon as the radio voice of ASU football and men's basketball for the 1998-99 academic year and assumed the duties of the ASU baseball play-by-play broadcaster in the spring of 2000.

Healey's 200th Sun Devil football radio broadcast was marked by the October 4, 2014 ASU football game at USC, known best for the game ending 'Jael Mary' touchdown pass from Mike Bercovici to Jaelen Strong, giving ASU a 38-34 win over the Trojans. Coach Todd Graham later presented Healey with a game ball to commemorate the milestone and the win. As Healey enters the 2015 season, his log stands at 208 Sun Devil football radio broadcasts and counting.

Healey spent 26 years (1973-99) in TV News & Sports, working as an anchor/ reporter at six different television stations around the country, including three and a half years (1983-87) as sports director of Channel 10 in Phoenix and 11 years (1988-99) at Channel 3.

Healey is a native of Washington, D.C. and a 1973 graduate (Magna Cum Laude) of Penn State University (B.A. Speech/ Broadcasting). He has been married to his wife Margie for 41 years and together they have two children, Katie (36) and Joe (33).

JEFF VAN RAAPHORST

COLOR ANALYST

Current MedTronic sales manager Jeff Van Raaphorst joined the Sun Devil radio broadcast booth in 1989 and the two-time Sun Devil alumni has never looked back. He earned his B.S. in 1987, his MBA in 1997 and was the Rose Bowl MVP in 1987 as ASU beat Michigan 22-15. He attended Grossmont High School in La Mesa, Calif., and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2006. He led ASU to a 10-1-1 record in 1986 and was 16-of-30 for 193 yards and two touchdowns in the Rose Bowl.

DOUG FRANZ

SIDELINE REPORTER

Doug Franz has been a fixture on the ASU sidelines since just about the very beginnings of his arrival in Arizona. Serving as the Sun Devil Football sideline reporter for over five years, Franz will once again pick up the mantle in 2015. Born in Bellbrook, Ohio, Franz got his radio start at ACRN, the student-run radio station at Ohio University, doing morning sports updates. From there, Franz spent five years with WATH and WXTQ in Athens, Ohio before heading to the South to help build a sports station in Huntsville, Ala., in the form of WUMP. Prior to moving to the Valley in 2007, Doug hosted a show on Sports 610 KCSP in Kansas City. Franz is currently the co-host of "Doug & Wolf" on Arizona Sports 98.7 in the mornings and hosts the two-hour pre-game show preceding Sun Devil football contests. Franz considers spending an hour in the studio with baseball legend Buck O'Neil to be a major career highlight. A lowlight would be a failed promotion in which he led a fifty-car caravan to an Ohio-Marshall football game and took a wrong turn. Doug is a youth soccer coach, enjoys golfing with his kids and loves to tell the story of taking his wife, Jennifer, to Cooperstown, N.Y. on their honeymoon. Born to great parents who strongly believed in family vacations, Franz hiked the Grand Canyon when he was 19 and fell in love with Arizona. Franz earned his telecommunications degree from Ohio in 1995.

2015 NOTABLES

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

- Coach Todd Graham now has a school-record 28 wins in his first three seasons as head coach at ASU, one more than Dan Devine (1955-57). Coach Graham has recorded 10 wins in five of his nine seasons as a head coach (Tulsa 2007, 2008, 2010; ASU 2013, 2014).
- With 118 points in 2014, Zane Gonzalez now holds the first and second all-time single season scoring marks for a kicker in ASU history. He holds the current school record at 138, set in 2013.
- D.J. Foster finished the season with 62 receptions, tied for the 10th most in a single season in ASU history. His 163 career receptions are the fifth most in ASU history.
- Running back D.J. Foster continued his streak of games with a reception to 40 at the Sun Bowl – or every game he has played as a Sun Devil – and is the third Sun Devil in school history with a reception in at least 40 consecutive games (Derek Hagan – 41, 2002-05; John Jefferson – 44, 1974-77). Foster, who had 62 receptions in 2014 and had 63 in 2013, is just the third player in school history to record 60-plus receptions in consecutive seasons (Jaelen Strong 75 and 80 in 2013-14; Derek Hagan 66, 83 and 77 in 2003-05).

STRIKE FIRST

- Arizona State has scored first in 29 of the 40 games with Todd Graham at the helm and is 23-6 in the Graham era when getting on the scoreboard first.
- ASU has accomplished the feat in all but four games in 2014 and was 7-1 when scoring first on the year.

STRIKE FAST

- 168 of ASU's 229 offensive scoring drives under offensive coordinator Mike Norvell have come in three minutes or less (73.4 percent).
- Of ASU's 76 scoring drives in 2014, 55 came in under the three-minute mark.

GETTING STARTED ON THE RIGHT FOOT

- The Sun Devils have outscored their opposition 391-200 in the first quarter under Todd Graham.
- The Sun Devils are 18-1 under Graham when holding their opposition scoreless in the first quarter.
- The Sun Devils finished 36th nationally against FBS teams in giving up just 5.1 points per first quarter in 2014 while being 31st nationally with 8.0 points scored per first quarter.
- ASU has posted an impressive 24-1 overall record in three seasons under Graham when leading at halftime.

FOSTER THE PEOPLE

- D.J. Foster was the only player in the FBS in 2014 to finish with over 1,000 rushing yards and over 600 receiving yards at 1,081 and 688, respectively.
- His 11 career receiving touchdowns were the most among all active running backs in 2014 prior to his switch to receiver.
- In 2014, Foster led the team with 47 rushing first downs of ASU's 110 total rushing first downs and was second on the team with 32 receiving first downs for a team-leading total of 79 first downs.
- Of his 256 touches on the season (194 rush, 62 receiving), 85 resulted in "money plays" or plays resulting in a first down or touchdown (33.2 percent).
- With 62 receptions in 2014, Foster became just the third player in program history to log 60 or more receptions in consecutive seasons with Jaelen Strong and Derek Hagan being the others.

GO D.J., THAT'S MY D.J.

- Foster is the only active FBS players who has accounted for over 2,000 career rushing yards (2,075) AND over 1,500 career receiving yards (1,874).
- Foster has the nation's longest active streak of games with a reception at 40 - or every game he has played in his ASU career - and will need just five more games to start the season to break John Jefferson's long standing school record of 44 set between 1974-77.

DON'T CROSS THAT LINE

- In three seasons under Graham, ASU has forced 1,018 plays that have not resulted in positive yardage out of 2,859 total plays (35.6 percent).
- ASU finished ninth nationally and second in the conference at 7.5 tackles for loss per game.
- In 2013, the ASU defense had 101 tackles for loss and held offenses to 353 plays (out of 942) that did not earn positive yardage (37.4 percent).
- In 2012, ASU forced 117 tackles for a loss of 497 total yards in 2012 - a 9.00 TFL per game mark that led the nation.

SERIOUSLY, DON'T CROSS IT

- In the Todd Graham era, ASU is second in the Pac-12 and second in the nation (behind Stanford) with an average of 7.93 tackles-for-loss per game.
- ASU is second in the Pac-12 and third in the nation with 317 total tackles for loss and is one of only four teams in the nation with more than 300 total tackles for loss (Clemson, Stanford, Virginia Tech).
- ASU ranks third in the Pac-12 and third in the nation with an average of 3.25 sacks per game (Stanford, Utah).
- ASU ranks second in the Pac-12 and second in the nation with 130 total sacks (Stanford).

LIGHT' EM UP

- ASU has scored 50 or more points 12 times since Todd Graham and Mike Norvell arrived in Tempe.
- To put that in perspective, ASU eclipsed 50 points 10 times total in the previous 10 years before the current coaching regime (2001-11).
- ASU went 86 games without scoring 60 from 2005-2011. Under Coach Graham it has scored 60 or more three times (63 NAU, 62 Navy, 62 USC).
- The Sun Devils finished 10th nationally in 2013 at 39.7 points per game and scored 556 total points, just six points behind the 1972 school record.
- ASU finished 2014 ranked 16th nationally in scoring offense, averaging 36.9 points per game.
- ASU's 44.7 points per game in non-conference games since 2012 is the sixth-highest average in the FBS in that time.

TAKING OFFENSE

- ASU ranks second in the Pac-12 and tied for seventh in the nation at 38.38 points per game (Baylor, Oregon, Marshall, Ohio State, Florida State, Texas A&M, tied with Georgia) in the Graham era.
- ASU ranks second in the Pac-12 and 10th in the nation with 1,535 total points (Oregon, Baylor, Ohio State, Florida State, Marshall, Texas A&M, Alabama, Georgia, Northern Illinois).

MAKE 'EM PAY

- In three years under Todd Graham, ASU has outscored opponents 417-158 in points off takeaways.
- The Sun Devils outscored the opposition 142-62 in points off turnovers in 2014, ranked fourth nationally in the FBS in 2014 behind only Louisiana Tech's 172, Nevada's 170 and Oregon's 164.
- ASU scored 22 times following 27 total takeaways (81.5 percent) and scored touchdowns on 19 of those occasions (70.4).
- In 2013, ASU outscored its opponents 146-42 on points off turnovers while posting a +15 takeaway number, putting points on the board following 75.8 percent of opponent turnovers (25-of-33) compared to just the 33.3 (6-of-18) percent clip ASU opponents scored off of Sun Devil turnovers.

TURNOVER FACTORY

- ASU finished with 27 turnovers in 2014 (2.1 per game) after having a streak of 29 consecutive games forcing a turnover come to an end in the season opener. The total was good for 24th nationally and third among Pac-12 schools.
- ASU led the Pac-12 with 33 takeaways in 2013, finishing fifth nationally. The team was seventh nationally with a 1.1 turnover margin that season.
- The Sun Devils have forced 90 turnovers under Todd Graham in the past three seasons, which is tied for the third-highest total in the country in that span.
- ASU has 11 interception returns for touchdowns under Graham, compared to posting just four total in the previous three seasons prior to 2012. The total currently leads the nation in for the most interception returns for touchdown in that span and ASU has added three fumble returns in the span as well for a NCAA leading total of 14 defensive touchdowns in the last three seasons.

A HAND IN THE COOKIE JAR

- ASU ranks second in the Pac-12 and second in the nation with a .88 average turnover margin per game (Oregon) since Graham took over the helm and is second in the Pac-12 and second in the nation with a plus-35 total turnover margin (Oregon).
- ASU ranks first in the Pac-12 and tied for second in the nation with an average of 1.4 interceptions per game (TCU, tied with Boise State) since 2012 and is first in the Pac-12 and tied for second in the nation with 56 total interceptions (TCU, tied with Boise State).

GOLD ZONE

- In 2014, as ASU scored on 58 of its 64 trips inside the red zone (90.6 percent), ranked 12th in the nation in conversion percentage and scoring a touchdown 40 times in that streak.
- In 2013, ASU points on the board 91.3 percent of the time in the red zone against FBS opponents in 2013, finishing sixth nationally in the category, as per TeamRankings.com.
- In 2012, ASU scored on just 76.1 percent of their drives inside the 20 and ranked a lowly 93rd in the nation against FBS opponents.
- In 2013 ASU allowed its FBS opponents to score 88.9 percent of the time when entering the red zone (ranked 106th nationally). In 2014, however, ASU held its opponents to 35 scores in 46 red zone appearances (76.1 percent) - good for 23rd nationally - improving dramatically in the rankings while allowing just 26 touchdowns on those trips, a 56.5 percent ratio that ranked 39th nationally.

WINNING THE BATTLE FOR FIELD POSITION

- Under Todd Graham, ASU has had an average starting yard line of its own 35.5 in 28 victories compared to a starting yard line of the 25.6 for their opponents in such contests.
- ASU allowed just 11 drives to start inside its own territory in 2014, tied with Arizona for the fewest as far Pac-12 teams went.
- Conversely, opponents have an average starting field position of their own 32.3 yard line compared to ASU starting at its own 28.7 in ASU's 12 losses under Graham.
- In 2012, ASU posted an average starting spot of its own 33-yard line that ranked 10th in the nation, according to the folks at Football Outsiders (www.footballoutsiders.com) and in 2013, the team ranked 13th nationally (average starting yard line: 33.3). With a 32.6 average starting spot in 2014, ASU was 13th nationally.
- The Sun Devils also held their opponents to an average starting line of their own 28-yard-line, a total that ranked 24th nationally in 2012 and was 32nd in 2013 (average opp. starting yardline: 28.2). ASU jumped to 11th nationally in 2014, forcing their opponents to an average field position of their own 26.9 yard line.

SEAL THE DEAL

- ASU has outscored other teams 388-259 in the fourth quarter and overtime under Todd Graham.
- The Sun Devils finished sixth nationally against FBS teams with 10.6 points per fourth quarter in 2014.
- ASU finished 10th in the nation in points per fourth quarter in 2013 against FBS opposition (9.9) after finishing the 2012 season with 9.3 points per fourth quarter, which was good for eighth nationally. ASU's 16.8 second-half points per game against FBS squads in 2013 was 24th nationally.

ROAD WARRIORS

- The Sun Devils are winners of seven of the last nine road contests.
- ASU has 11 road wins in the past 18 road games, including nine Pac-12 Conference road wins in the past 14 Pac-12 road games.
- Todd Graham has nine Pac-12 road victories under his belt already, tied for the second-most among all ASU coaches since 1980 behind only Bruce Snyder's 18 from 1992-2000.
- Graham is 9-5 in Pac-12 road games at ASU, notable as the Devils were 5-13 in four seasons prior on the road in the conference.
- In four seasons prior to Todd Graham, ASU was 5-13 in conference road games while Graham has led the squad to a 7-3 record in such games in his three seasons at the helm.

EXPLOSIVE

- The Sun Devils have a classification of "explosive plays" that equal a run of 12 or more yards or a passing play of 16 or more yards. ASU had 138 explosive plays (77 passing, 61 rushing) in 2014.
- ASU finished 24th nationally with 20 plays over 40 yards in 2014 after having just 16 total in 2013 and eight the year before. ASU was 26th nationally in plays of 20 or more yards with 71.
- ASU finished with 142 such plays in 2013 (82 passing, 60 rushing) and 165 (90 passing, 75 rushing) in 2012.
- The Sun Devils finished 2013 tied for seventh in the nation in plays longer than 20 yards with 86 after having 72 in 2012, which was good for 19th in the country in the category.

BETTER SUITED FOR HANDKERCHIEFS

- The Sun Devils averaged just 4.5 penalties for 32.4 yards per game, ranked 16th in fewest penalties per game and fourth in fewest penalty yards per game in D-I in 2014.
- In 2013, the Sun Devils finished eighth in fewest penalties per game (4.00) and seventh in fewest penalty yards per game (31.4).
- Since Graham's arrival, ASU ranks first in the Pac-12 and third in the nation with an average of 32.85 penalty yards per game (Navy, Air Force) and ranks first in the Pac-12 and ninth in the nation with an average of 4.23 penalties per game (Navy, Air Force, Army, Boston College, Iowa, Michigan, Ball St., Wisconsin).

MORE ON PENALTIES

- Twenty-two of ASU's 25 least penalized games since 2006 have come under Todd Graham.
- Since Todd Graham arrived at Arizona State, the Sun Devils have had just 169 penalties in 40 games (4.23 penalties per game).

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

- ASU is now 16-4 at Sun Devil Stadium under Todd Graham.
- In 19 regular season home games under Todd Graham, the Sun Devils have averaged 43.3 points per game.
- The lowest score the Devils had recorded in a regular season home game under Graham was 21 against Oregon in 2012 and ASU had scored 20 or more in 24 consecutive regular season home games, dating back to 2010, prior to last season's.
- The Sun Devils are 273-99-3 (.732) all-time at Sun Devil Stadium since 1958, the 22nd-highest active winning percentage in a stadium among all FBS schools.

WIRE-TO-WIRE

- The 2014 season marked the first time since 1996, and just 11th overall, ASU was ranked in the preseason AP poll and finished in the final top 25 as well.
- ASU's No. 12 ranking last season was the program's highest final AP Poll ranking since 1996 and was the ninth time in school history the Devils had finished the season with a top-12 ranking, and just the fourth time since posting its best-ever finish in 1975.
- ASU, which was ranked No. 19 in the preseason poll, improved its position by seven spots to No. 12 in the final poll. It was only the seventh time in school history the Devils improved their ranking from the preseason to the final poll, and the seven-spot jump is the fourth-best improvement in school history.

ON THE RISE

- ASU is 19-8 in Pac-12 games since 2012, one game ahead of UCLA's 18-9 mark in that same time span for the best Pac-12 South tally.
- ASU is 14-4 in Pac-12 games in the past two seasons, two games up on UCLA and USC (12-6) for tops in the Pac-12.
- ASU has finished first or second in each of the last three seasons in the final Pac-12 South standings.

USE THEM WISELY

- Since the start of the 2012 season, ASU has used 51 timeouts on defense in third down situations, and have forced a turnover or not allowed a first down on the ensuing play on 35 of those occasions (68.6 percent).

IN-ZANE IN THE MEMBRANE

- Zane Gonzalez averaged 9.8 points per game in 2014, ranked 12th nationally and four among kickers while sitting first overall in the Pac-12.
- His 81.5 percent field goal percentage on 22-of-27 kicking was 22nd nationally.

FG-ONZALEZ

- Gonzalez finished the 2013 season hitting 25 of 30 field goals (83.3 percent) and booted 63 of 65 extra points and was 10th in the nation in scoring at 9.9 points per game.
- His 138 points by kick scoring were first in the Pac-12 and he was first in the Pac-12 in field goals at 1.7 per game.
- Gonzalez led the Pac-12 with 25 field goals and was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, given annually to the nation's top kicker and earned the honor for the second consecutive season this year as well.
- Gonzalez finished with 138 points in 2013, breaking the long-standing school record in the category that was previous held by Wilford White's 136 in 1950.
- Gonzalez's 138 points demolished the previous scoring record by an ASU kicker that was 118, set by Thomas Weber (2007) and Mike Barth (2002).
- With 25 field goals in 2013, Gonzalez tied the NCAA freshman record of 25 that was set by UCLA's Kai Forbath in 2007 (25-30) that was four more field goals than any other player in the FBS in the process.
- Gonzalez finished with 118 points in 2014, good for a tie for fourth all-time on ASU's single season scoring list.
- Gonzalez is currently second on the NCAA active D-I leader list in field goals made per game for his career at 1.81 and is fifth on the active career leader list at 9.8 points per game.

HOLD ON TO YOUR SEATS

- ASU played in four games in 2013 decided by seven points or less, going 3-1 in those contests. The total is notable as ASU was just 4-13 in the previous four seasons in games decided by less than a touchdown.
- ASU was 3-1 in 2014 in games decided by less than a touchdown following the team's 36-31 Sun Bowl victory over Duke.
- ASU has now gone 7-2 in games decided by a touchdown or less since the 2012 Arizona comeback in Tucson. To put that in perspective, ASU had gone 6-16 in such games since the 2007 season up until that Tucson game.

HOLD ON TO THAT BALL, ALSO

- In 2014, the Sun Devils had six games where they did not turn the ball over and went 6-0 in those contests. That number is notable because in the previous two seasons, ASU had just five combined games where it did not turn the ball over.
- ASU is now 10-1 under Todd Graham in games where it does not have a turnover.

TODD'S WINNING WAYS

- Graham has won 28 games in his first three seasons at Arizona State.
- He has become the only ASU head coach to reach bowl eligibility in each of his first three seasons at the school outside of John Cooper.
- He has led ASU to three consecutive eight win seasons for the first time since 1971-73.
- It took Frank Kush until the third game of his third season to reach the 20-win plateau whereas it took Graham until the second game of his third season.
- Of all the coaching hires made prior to the 2012 season, Graham has posted the fourth-best record at 28-12, ranking behind only Urban Meyer (38-3), Jim Mora (29-11) and Kevin Sumlin (28-11) in the last three seasons.

NOT WASTING TIME

- In just three seasons, Todd Graham already finds him self with an average of 9.33 wins per year at ASU, which would rank him tops all-time in ASU lore.
- His 28 wins are already the sixth-most among coaches in program history while his .700 win percentage sits fourth all-time.
- Graham became the third-quickest coach to reach 28 wins, doing so in 40 games.
- As far as Bowl Game goes, Graham has wasted no time establishing himself in the record books as his three appearances with the Sun Devils are already tied for third among all ASU coaches and his two wins are tied for second.

ELITE COMPANY

- In 2014, ASU secured back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time since Frank Kush notched double-digit victories from 1970-73. That was drought of 31 years since it last happened, providing further evidence of how difficult an achievement back-to-back 10-win seasons are to come by.
- Head Coach Todd Graham now has a school-record 28 wins in his first three seasons as head coach at ASU, one more than College Football Hall of Fame Coach Dan Devine (1955-57).
- Coach Graham has now recorded 10 wins in five of his nine seasons as a head coach (Tulsa 2007, 2008, 2010; ASU 2013, 2014.) Since 2007, Coach Graham currently sits tied for No. 4 nationally in most 10-win seasons with five at FBS institutions, ranking behind only Nick Saban, Bob Stoops and Chris Peterson.

DOUBLE THE DIGITS, DOUBLE THE FUN

- Back-to-back 10-win seasons hadn't happened at Arizona State since 1970-73. But a quick look around the nation shows that only 12 schools have posted back-to-back 10 win-seasons the past two years. Here are the double-digit dozen.

WORK THAT, BERC THAT

- In Mike Bercovici's first two career starts last season, he passed for 998 yards with eight touchdowns and two interceptions.
- The 998 yards were a Pac-12 record for most yards in consecutive games for about an hour before WSU's Connor Halliday broke the mark but the tally ranks as the most passing yards in the first two starts of a players career in Division I history.
- Bercovici threw for five touchdowns against USC, a milestone that no player in history has ever accomplished against the Trojans.
- Bercovici also led the Sun Devils to their first victory over Stanford since 2008.

TAKING DOWN THE TOP

- ASU was 3-2 in 2013 against team's ranked in the AP Top-25 Poll and the three victories were the most since 1997 when the team went 3-1 against teams ranked in the AP poll.
- ASU's 2014 schedule put the team on a collision course with three consecutive AP Top-25 teams (UCLA, USC, Stanford), a streak that ASU had faced only twice in program history. The last that happened was 2001, where ASU went 0-3 against No. 13 Washington, No. 8 Oregon and No. 11 Washington State. In 1994, ASU defeated No. 20 BYU in between losses to No. 23 Washington State and No. 21 Oregon.
- ASU came out of the gauntlet with a 2-1 record with back-to-back victories over No. 16 USC and No. 23 Stanford. It was the first time ASU has won back-to-back games over ranked opponents since 1997, when it took down No. 25 Stanford on Oct. 18 before defeating No. 10 Washington State on Nov. 1 following a bye week.
- The Sun Devils have gone 7-4 in the last 11 games against ranked teams.

SLAYING DRAGONS

- In three seasons at the helm, Todd Graham is 7-7 against AP-ranked opponents and the team was 4-2 in such teams in 2014.
- Graham has more than doubled Dennis Erickson (3) and Dirk Koetter (2) during their tenures.
- In the previous 14 seasons, ASU was 5-40 in games against teams ranked in the AP poll.
- Other notable victories include the come-from-behind victory over Arizona in 2012, winning a game in the Coliseum last season for the first time since 1999 and defeating USC in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1996-97. ASU also ended a four-game losing streak to Stanford.

TODD GRAHAM

HEAD COACH

2013 PAC-12 COACH OF THE YEAR

From the moment he was introduced as Arizona State University's head football coach on December 14, 2011, Todd Graham made it clear he was a visionary. A throwback. A teacher who truly believes in the virtues of hard work, dedication and giving back.

He made it clear he was going to infuse the program with a culture that was about winning in all facets of a student-athlete's life. Graham referred to it simply as, 'The Sun Devil Way.'

"Our goal as a program is that we are going to first and foremost bring out the best in every single person's character that's involved in our program," Graham said. "I'm not only interested in winning on Saturday... I want to win every day in every way. We will compete in the classroom as we compete on the field.

"On the field we're going to be passionate and disciplined. Discipline is the key to winning football games. We're going to be involved in the community. The greatest joy that I've had in my life is to learn to be a giver. . . I want our players to understand that family and character and bringing out the best and being a giver, that's what I call unique character, is giving every day."

Graham, the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, enters his fourth season at the helm of the Arizona State University football program. Under his leadership, Sun Devil football has reached levels of success not seen in more than 30 years as last year's squad became the first to post back-to-back 10-win seasons since 1973. The accomplishment is the sum of many brilliant achievements orchestrated by Graham and his staff the last three seasons. Since Graham's arrival in Tempe...

ASU's high-octane offense has eclipsed 50 points in 12 games and the Devils are second in the Pac-12 and seventh in the nation at 38 points per game during that stretch.

ASU's attacking defense has outscored opponents 417-151 in points off takeaways. The Devils are second in the nation with a plus-35 turnover margin and rank in the top three in the nation in tackles for loss, sacks and interceptions. They are one of only four teams in the nation with more than 300 total tackles for loss, and their 130 sacks and 56 interceptions are both the second-highest totals among FBS teams.

ASU has become one of the least penalized teams in the nation (third over the last three seasons in fewest penalty yards per game) and the most disciplined team in the Pac-12 (first in fewest penalties per game).

ASU has earned three consecutive bowl bids and won the Pac-12 South in 2013.

The Sun Devils are 16-4 at home under Graham and in the last two years have won seven of 10 games on the road.

The Sun Devils have also reached new heights in the classroom. ASU's 12 Pac-12 All-Academic honorees in 2014 were the most in program history (26 in three years). In addition, 97 football student-athletes have earned Scholar Baller® recognition – which honors Sun Devil student-athletes who achieve a 3.0 GPA or higher – in his three seasons.

In 2014, Graham's Sun Devil squad posted a 10-3 record, including 6-3 in Pac-12 play, a second-place finish in the Pac-12 South Division and a 36-31 victory over Duke in the Sun Bowl. Tasked with replacing nine starters on defense, Graham led a unit that ranked near the top in the nation in sacks and tackles for loss, forced 27 turnovers and scored five touchdowns during the season.

On the other side of the ball, ASU finished the season ranked 16th in the nation in scoring offense and averaged more than 440 yards per game behind record-breaking quarterback and Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year Taylor Kelly, 1,000-yard rusher D.J. Foster and 1,000-yard receiver Jaelen Strong.

A total of 28 FBS schools hired coaches prior to the 2012 season, 17 of which remain at those schools. Of those coaches, Graham has posted the fourth-best overall record in his first three seasons behind only Urban Meyer (38-3), Jim Mora (29-

11) and Kevin Sumlin (28-11).

In 2013 Graham's Sun Devils brushed aside the prognostications from skeptics who felt that an early-season string of games against Wisconsin, Stanford, USC and Notre Dame would be a little bit too much to overcome. Then, sitting with a 5-2 record after seven games and still very much in the race for the Pac-12 South crown, the Sun Devils would have their endurance and desire questioned again as they had to navigate their way through a stretch of three of their next four games on the road. In a gut-check, 20-19 win at Utah, the Sun Devils dug deep and proved they had the toughness and resilience to fight through any challenge that lay before them.

That belief would serve them well two weeks later in a winner-take-all showdown at No. 14 UCLA. At stake: a trip to the Pac-12 Championship game. There would be no hesitation to seize the moment as the Sun Devils ambushed the Bruins, jumping out to a 35-13 halftime lead. Despite its early dominance, ASU could not leave UCLA's Rose Bowl Stadium with a win until having to overcome yet another test.

A furious rally by the Bruins got them to within one score. Down 38-33 and with 3:21 remaining, the Bruins took over possession of the ball at their own 35. In a similar situation one year earlier, UCLA responded by taking the ball down the field for the game winning field goal. Despite Hollywood being only 15 miles away, the Sun Devil defense ensured there would be no sequel on this day as a pair of critical sacks forced the UCLA offense into submission. And just like that, the Sun Devils were champions of the Pac-12 South.

One week later ASU would keep possession of the Territorial Cup after blitzing Arizona 58-21. With the win the Sun Devils clinched a berth in the 2013 Pac-12 Championship Game.

ASU outscored its opponents 146-42 on points off turnovers while posting a +15 takeaway number in 2013. ASU put points on the board following 75.8 percent of opponent turnovers (25-of-33) compared to just the 33.3 (6-of-18) percent clip ASU opponents scored off of Sun Devil turnovers.

The duo of defensive tackle Will Sutton and linebacker Carl Bradford combined to give ASU the most dynamic defensive tandem in the country as the two combined for 24.5 sacks and 44.0 tackles for loss in 2012. Their collective average of 1.92 sacks per game was the highest in the country by two players on the same team since the 2006 season. Bradford racked up 40.5 tackles for loss in two years under Graham, tied for the fourth most by any player in the nation in that time.

Sutton became ASU's sixth winner of the Morris Trophy and the 18th consensus All-American and first since 2007. Sutton also became the fifth ASU player to win the Pac-10/12 conference Defensive Player of the Year award. After accomplishing all of that as a junior, Sutton returned for his senior season and repeated as the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and Morris Trophy Winner while adding numerous All-American accolades.

Although the 2013 Sun Devils would come up short of their ultimate goal of getting to and winning the annual Rose Bowl Game, they proved they had the right people on board. And leading that ship a captain in Graham, who, surrounded by the best lieutenants in the land, would put them in position to get there again.

Graham was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and as he and his staff of talented assistants – all committed to winning, 'The Sun Devil Way' – guided the team through a turbulent schedule to post a 10-4 record and an 8-1 record to earn the program's first Pac-12 Championship game berth.

"The honor says, 'Coach of the Year,' but it really should say 'Team of the Year,' because none of this would be possible without the work of our tireless coaching – I'm very blessed to have tremendous teachers, men of great character that do a tremendous job – and the trust of our kids to believe what we are teaching them is going to take us where we want to go," said Graham.

In his first season at Arizona State, Graham guided the team to an 8-5 record as the program recorded its first winning regular season since going 10-2 in 2007. ASU ended the season with three straight wins for the first time since 1978 and just the 14th time in school history.

That season, ASU beat Arizona in a dramatic fourth-quarter comeback in Tucson to reclaim the Territorial Cup and went on to win a bowl game for the first time since 2005 and the 13th time in school history. Additionally, ASU was one of just four Pac-12 teams to win at least three conference road games (3-2) in 2012, doing so for just the fifth time in the program's Pac-10/12 history.

While known for leading programs that have annually been among the nation's leaders in offensive production, Graham gained national acclaim for his coaching prowess on the other side of the ball after leading defenses that helped West Virginia (2002) and Tulsa (2003) engineer two of the top single-season turnarounds in recent memory. With head-turning accomplishments like those it is easy to see why Graham believes that defense wins championships.

Employing an approach that emphasizes excellent fundamentals and hard and disciplined play, the Sun Devils' extraordinary improvement on defense played a paramount role in the team's rise in 2012. After finishing at or near the bottom of the Pac-12 in several defensive categories in 2011, the Sun Devils experienced an amazing reversal in 2012 as they led the conference in tackles for loss (No. 1 in the nation), pass defense (No. 3 in the nation), and pass efficiency defense (No. 10 in the nation) and finished second in the league in sacks (No. 2 in the nation), interceptions (No. 4 in the nation) and total defense.

Graham was named the 23rd head football coach in program history on December 14, 2011, arriving in Tempe from the University of Pittsburgh.

Graham became well-known on the national scene following a four-year stint at Tulsa (2007-2010) where he led the Golden Hurricane to a 36-17 mark, which included three bowl wins and three seasons of 10-plus wins. Tulsa was one of just 11 schools to post back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2007 and 2008.

The native of Mesquite, Texas, had seasons at Tulsa which included records of 10-4 (2007), 11-3 (2008) and 10-3 (2010) and in his final season the Golden Hurricane won games at Notre Dame and then topped No. 24 Hawaii 62-35 in its own bowl game. The Notre Dame win was dubbed the biggest upset of the 2010 college football season by ESPN's Kirk Herbstreit.

One distinguishing characteristic of Graham-coached teams has been their propensity for lighting up the scoreboard. On two occasions Tulsa led the nation in total offense (2007 at 543.9 yards per game and 2008 at 569.9 yards per game) and ranked fifth in 2010. His 2010 Tulsa team also led the nation in interceptions (24) and was third in turnovers gained (36). His 2007 squad not only led the nation in total offense at 543.9 yards per game, it set 29 school records, 15 conference marks and four NCAA records. Tulsa routed Bowling Green 63-7 in the GMAC Bowl, the largest bowl margin of victory in NCAA history.

His 2008 team again led the nation in total offense (569.9 yards per game) while ranking second in scoring (47.2 points per game), fifth in rushing (268 ypg) and ninth in passing (301.9 ypg). His team finished 11-3, capped by another large bowl win, a 45-13 victory over No. 22 Ball State in the GMAC Bowl.

Including ASU's 62-28 win over Navy in the 2012 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl, Graham's offense has enabled three different teams (two at Tulsa) to score 60-plus points in a bowl game, making him the only coach to accomplish the feat multiple times.

Prior to taking the head job at Tulsa, Graham led Rice to its first bowl game in 45 seasons in 2006 and earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors that same season.

Graham began his coaching career in 1988 as an assistant at Poteet High School/Middle School in Mesquite (1988-90) and then helped lead East Central University from a .500 program to NAIA national champions in his third year as he served as defensive coordinator from 1991-93. One year later he was at Carl Albert High School in Midwest City, Okla., and then spent time from 1995-2000 at Allen High School in Allen, Texas. While at Allen, north of Dallas, he also served as athletic director and led a program that had no district wins in the year prior to his arrival to five playoff berths in six seasons (1995-2000).

Graham was hired as the linebackers coach at West Virginia in 2001 and one year later he was promoted to defensive co-coordinator as the Mountaineers went from 3-8 to 9-4, the top turnaround in the country in 2002.

In 2003 Steve Kragthorpe hired Graham as the defensive coordinator at Tulsa. For the second time in as many years, a Graham-led defense proved instrumental in helping a program post the nation's best turnaround as the Golden Hurricane went from 1-11 in 2002 to 8-5 in 2003. Graham's defenses would help lead Tulsa to a pair of bowl games before he moved on to take over the head job at Rice.

Graham was an all-state defensive back at North Mesquite High School and, after graduating in 1983, he played for East Central University in Ada, Okla., where he was a two-time NAIA All-American defensive back.

Born Dec. 5 1964, Graham earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from East Central University. He and his wife, Penni, have six children: Bo, Natalie, Hank, Haylee, Dakota and Michael Todd Jr.

MIKE NORVELL

DEPUTY HEAD COACH (OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS)

A key figure in Todd Graham's high-octane and high-scoring attack, Mike Norvell enters his fourth season directing the Sun Devil offense.

Under the supervision of Norvell, who was promoted to deputy head coach in December 2013, the Sun Devil offense is ranked second in the Pac-12 and tied for seventh in the nation at 38.38 points per game over the last three seasons.

In 2014, the Sun Devils' offense ranked 16th in the nation in scoring (37 points per game) and 13th in touchdown passes (34). The offense finished with 5,750 total yards, including 2,194 on the ground and 3,556 through the air. Quarterback Taylor Kelly, who was named the Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year and ASU's recipient of the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal of Honor (awarded annually to each member institution's outstanding senior male and female student-athlete based on the exhibition of the greatest combination of performance and achievement in scholarship, athletics and leadership), concluded his time in the Maroon and Gold third in both career passing yards and touchdowns.

Norvell's guidance was also instrumental in the development of Mike Bercovici, who was thrust into the starter's role when Kelly was injured in the third game of the 2014 season. In three starts Bercovici led ASU to a 2-1 record while throwing for 1,243 yards and nine touchdowns (only two interceptions) and completing 63 percent of his passes.

The 2013 Sun Devil offense was ranked 10th nationally in scoring, averaging 39.7 points per game. Norvell mentored Kelly, who threw for 28 touchdowns. Combined with his 29 touchdown tosses in 2012, Kelly's 57 scoring strikes in 2012-13 were the most for any Sun Devil quarterback in a two-season span. In addition, Kelly's 3,635 passing yards in 2013 were the third-most in a single season.

"In addition to his offensive prowess, coach Norvell is one of the greatest teachers I've ever worked with," ASU head coach Todd Graham said when Norvell's promotion was announced. "Character, discipline and work ethic are all ideals he not only stresses, but holds himself to as well. His ability to connect and motivate young people is unparalleled, and I'm looking forward to coaching with him for many years to come."

Norvell led a balanced and explosive offense in his first year with ASU as he helped the Sun Devils set school marks at the quarterback, running back and tight end positions.

The 2012 Sun Devils became the 14th team in NCAA FBS bowl history to score 60+ points in a bowl game (62 against Navy in Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl).

Of the 464.5 total yards per game ASU averaged in 2012, 205.5 came on the ground, representing the second-best mark in the previous 25 seasons (since 1988).

Nowhere was Norvell's influence felt more than at the quarterback position where Kelly, in his first season as ASU's starting signal-caller, set the school record for completion percentage (67.1) and threw for the second-most touchdown passes (29) in school history. Combined with the talents of running back Marion Grice – scored the third-most touchdowns (19) in school history – and tight end Chris Coyle – 57 receptions were the most ever by an ASU tight end – Norvell's quick-strike offense produced 58 scoring drives of three minutes or less in 2012.

Norvell has worked with Coach Graham for the past eight seasons at Tulsa, Pitt and now ASU. He started as an offensive graduate assistant and receivers coach with Tulsa and soon transitioned to passing game coordinator and receivers coach before adding director of recruiting to his title in 2010. At Pitt in 2011, Norvell was the co-offensive coordinator, wide receivers coach and director of recruiting.

While with Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane had five 1,000-yard receivers emerge under Norvell's tutelage. His most accomplished pupil was All-America receiver Damaris Johnson, who led the country in all-purpose yards for two consecutive years and set the all-time NCAA FBS record for that category with 7,796 career yards. Johnson averaged 202.2 all-purpose yards per game in 2010. In Tulsa's 62-35 win over Hawai'i in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, he averaged an incredible 21.73 yards per touch en route to 326 all-purpose yards.

In 2008, Norvell's receivers were a vital part of college football's most prolific offense. Tulsa averaged an astounding 569.9 yards per game that season to lead the country. The Golden Hurricane ranked second nationally in scoring (47.1 points/game) and ninth in passing yards (301.8 yards/game). Tulsa also topped the country in total offense in 2007 (543.9 yards/game) and set 29 school records, 15 Conference USA marks and four NCAA records. The '07 Golden Hurricane became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers in a single season.

Prior to Tulsa, Norvell was an offensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Central Arkansas. In addition to coaching receivers and H-Backs, he was a significant contributor to UCA's special teams.

Norvell was accomplished on the field and in the classroom at Central Arkansas. A four-year starter at receiver, he finished his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions (213) and ranked third in receiving yards (2,611). Norvell earned All-Gulf South honors and was the conference's 2001 Freshman of the Year. He also was a two-time first-team Gulf South All-Academic honoree. Norvell earned his bachelor's degree of education in social studies in 2005 and a master's degree in training systems in 2007, both from UCA.

Norvell is married to the former Maria Chiolino of Fort Smith, Arkansas. They have a daughter, Mila, who was born on June 23, 2014.

CHRIS THOMSEN

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH (OFFENSIVE LINE)

CLICK FOR VIDEO

Chris Thomsen enters his third season as assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Arizona State under head coach Todd Graham. Thomsen was named ASU's running backs coach on Jan. 11, 2013, but moved over to coach the offensive line on Mar. 19, 2013.

In 2014 Thomsen mentored First Team All-Pac-12 left guard Jamil Douglas and Second Team All-Pac-12 center Nick Kelly. The combination of Douglas and Kelly paved the way for D.J. Foster to record a 1,000-yard rushing campaign and played a pivotal role in the Sun Devil offense recording a 91-percent conversion rate on red zone trips (12th in the nation) and scoring 37 points per game (16th in nation.) Douglas would go on to be drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

In his first year at ASU, Thomsen mentored 2013 First Team All-Pac-12 left tackle Evan Finkenberg and left guard Douglas (Second Team All-Pac-12), a duo that helped the Sun Devils' offense collect 320 first downs (10th in the nation), post a 90-percent conversion rate on red zone trips (13th in the nation) and score 41 points per game (ninth in the nation).

One of only two teams in the Pac-12 in 2013 to start the same five offensive linemen all season, the Devils' line helped running back Marion Grice gain 996 rushing yards and score 20 touchdowns, and quarterback Taylor Kelly pass for 3,635 yards.

Thomsen spent the 2012 season as the offensive line coach at Texas Tech. He was previously hired by Graham in December 2011 as an assistant coach, but Thomsen left ASU the following February to become the offensive line coach at Texas Tech. He took over as the Red Raiders' interim head coach two days after Tommy Tuberville resigned to take the head coaching job at Cincinnati and led Texas Tech to a 34-31 win over Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

While at Texas Tech, Thomsen coached left tackle LaAdrian Waddle, who started eight games as a rookie at right tackle for the Detroit Lions in 2013. Waddle earned 2012 First-Team All-Big 12 Conference accolades and Texas Tech's offensive line yielded the fewest quarterback sacks per game and also averaged the most yards per carry on offense since 2008.

Prior to his first stint at ASU, Thomsen spent the previous seven seasons as head coach of the Division II Abilene Christian Wildcats. From a 4-6 debut in 2005, Thomsen led the Wildcats to a 47-15 record over the final six seasons and six straight trips to the NCAA Division II playoffs. His final record at ACU over seven seasons was 51-21.

Thomsen turned the ACU program into a perennial contender under his watch, winning the Lone Star Conference South Division Coach of the Year award four times. He led the Wildcats to an undefeated regular season in 2010 and twice won 11 games. Between 2006-11 ACU was one of just four programs in the country to have reached the NCAA Division II playoffs, joining Northwest Missouri State, North Alabama and Albany State (Ga.) in that elite category.

Before Thomsen's arrival in 2005, ACU hadn't won a Lone Star Conference championship since 1977 and hadn't won an outright championship since 1973, but Thomsen led ACU to undisputed league crowns in 2008 and 2010, posting perfect regular seasons in both years. For his efforts, Thomsen was voted the LSC South Division Coach of the Year four times in his seven seasons in the league. Known for his high-powered offenses at ACU, Thomsen's tenure is perhaps most famous for the 2008 NCAA Division II playoff game against rival West Texas A&M, when the two teams combined to break 45 NCAA Division II records in a 93-68 Abilene Christian victory. That season, ACU led the NCAA in yards per game (558.8) and points per game (52.3) and scored at least 40 points 11 times and at least 36 points in all 13 contests

In 2007, ACU had one of the nation's most prolific offenses, ranking first in NCAA Division II football in scoring (49.2 ppg), second in total offense (544.8 ypg) and sixth in passing offense (314.0 ypg). The Wildcats also led the nation in fewest sacks allowed (eight in 13 games).

While at ACU, the two-time AFCA Region IV Coach of the Year coached five NFL draft choices (Daniele Manning, 42nd pick, second round by the Chicago Bears in 2006; Johnny Knox, fifth-round pick by the Bears in 2009; Bernard Scott, sixth-round pick by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2009; Clyde Gates, fourth-round pick by the Miami Dolphins in 2011; Daryl Richardson, seventh-round pick by the St. Louis Rams in 2012); an NFL Pro Bowl selection (Knox in 2009), a Harlon Hill Award winner (Scott in 2008), the award that is the NCAA Division II equivalent of the Heisman Trophy; and a Gene Upshaw Award winner (Sam Collins in 2008), signifying the top lineman in NCAA Division II football.

Before becoming the head coach at Abilene Christian, Thomsen served two seasons as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Central Arkansas. He began his coaching career in 1994 as a graduate assistant at ACU before spending two seasons as the offensive line coach and one as the defensive line coach. He was named the Wildcats' offensive coordinator in 1998, spending two seasons in that position. After spending one season away from football, he got back into coaching in 2001, spending two years as offensive coordinator at Wichita Falls High School before joining Central Arkansas.

Thomsen played football three seasons (1988-90) and baseball one season (All-America and All-Southwest Conference with 21 home runs and a .373 batting average) at Texas Christian University before being selected in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft by the Oakland Athletics. He was TCU's Male Athlete of the Year in 1991. Thomsen went on to play for two seasons in Oakland's minor league system. After retiring from baseball, he returned to the college gridiron, playing one season at ACU. He was a First-Team All-Lone Star Conference tight end for the Wildcats, earning Second-Team All-American honors. He earned a Bachelor of Science in criminal justice from TCU in December 1993 and received his master's in secondary education from ACU in 2000.

SHAWN SLOCUM

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/OLBS

Former NFL assistant and long-time college assistant coach Shawn Slocum was named Associate Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator/Outside Linebackers Coach at Arizona State University in March 2015.

"Shawn has 25 years of coaching experience to his credit, with almost all of that coming at the elite college level," said Sun Devil head coach Todd Graham when he announced Slocum's appointment. "We have enjoyed a high level of success, both offensively and defensively and I have wanted to take our special teams play to a championship level. This hire accomplishes that. Shawn comes from a football family and he has coached and recruited at the highest competitive level. Shawn's addition will further complement the fine staff that we already have in place. This is the best coaching staff I have ever had as a head coach."

Slocum started his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M, under his father R.C. Slocum. In 1990, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, where he coached the defense. He returned to Texas A&M, coaching tight ends, linebackers, and special teams, from 1991 to 1997. From 1991 to 1993, Slocum helped the Aggies win three straight Southwest Conference championships. Between 1994-97, he coached two all-Americans – Shane Lechler and Lombardi Award winner Dat Nguyen – who both went on to play in the NFL.

During his seven-season coaching tenure at A&M, he was part of a staff that led the Aggies to five bowl games, including four Cotton Bowl Classic appearances. Texas A&M's record was 94-28-2 from 1991-1997. The 94 wins were the sixth-most in the country and also the most wins by any Texas Division I school in any decade.

From 1998 to 1999, Slocum coached at the University of Southern California, where he tutored Butkus Award winner Chris Claiborne, Zeke Moreno, and Markus Steele. He returned to A&M again and coached the secondary and special teams from 2000-02. In 2005, he became assistant head coach and linebacker coach at Ole Miss, where he coached star linebacker Patrick Willis.

On February 6, 2006, Slocum joined the Green Bay Packers, becoming the assistant special teams coach. He was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2009. The Packers won Super Bowl XLV in 2010, 31-25 over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Arlington, Texas.

During his tenure in Green Bay the Packers won five division championships (2007, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014), played in three NFC Championship games (winning one, 2010) and appeared in the NFL Playoffs seven times (2007, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014). Slocum also was invited to coach in three Pro Bowl games.

Shawn's father, R.C. Slocum, was head coach for Texas A&M from 1989 to 2002 and is the winningest coach in Texas A&M football history.

Born in Monticello, Arkansas, on February 21, 1965, Slocum graduated from Bryan High School in Bryan, Texas, in 1983 and attended Texas A&M University, where he played football as a linebacker. Slocum earned one letter with the team in 1984. He graduated with a B.S. in construction management degree in 1987 from the Texas A&M College of Architecture.

Slocum is currently married to the former Michelle Biehl and the couple has four children.

KEITH PATTERSON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR (LINEBACKERS)

Long-time coaching veteran Keith Patterson joined the Sun Devil coaching staff in 2014 as defensive coordinator, linebackers and defensive special teams coach. Patterson brings a wealth of defensive knowledge to ASU where head coach Todd Graham places a lot of emphasis on the defensive side of the football.

Under the direction of Patterson, the 2014 Sun Devil defense finished sixth in the nation in turnover margin at plus-14 and led the Pac-12 with 14 interceptions. Patterson mentored linebackers D.J. Calhoun, Salamo Fiso and Laiu Moeakiola to third-team All-Pac-12 honors, and Calhoun was named a freshman All-American. Patterson's linebacker group combined for 16 of the team's 39 sacks and also produced three of the team's top five tacklers.

Patterson came to ASU from West Virginia University, where he served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2013 and as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2012. ASU head coach Todd Graham and Patterson have a professional and personal relationship that goes back to East Central University where they were college roommates.

Patterson, who has coached in nine college bowl games, mentored West Virginia linebacker Isaiah Bruce, who was named to three freshman All-America teams and two All-Big 12 teams in 2012 after ranking second on the team in tackles with 94, fourth in tackles for loss with 6.5 and first on the team in fumbles recovered with two. He also tied for the team lead in interceptions.

In 2011 Patterson served as Graham's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Pittsburgh. That Pitt defense was ranked No. 3 nationally in quarterback sacks (3.31), tied for No. 12 in tackles for loss (98), No. 14 in defensive third-down efficiency (32.98), No. 21 in rushing defense (116.9), No. 35 in total defense (350.62) and No. 38 in scoring defense (22.4). The defense placed five players on the All-Big East Team and featured one All-American. Patterson served as the interim head coach for the BBVA Compass Bowl against SMU when Graham left for Arizona State.

Patterson coached at the University of Tulsa from 2003 until 2010, where he tutored some of the most productive and accomplished defenders in the school's football history. Patterson began by coaching linebackers in 2003 and then added the title of defensive coordinator from 2006 through 2010. In 2010, he helped mold a defense that led the country in interceptions (24) and ranked third in turnovers gained (36). Facing the nation's top passing offense in Hawai'i in the 2010 Hawai'i Bowl, Tulsa's defense forced five interceptions and six total turnovers en route to a victory over the No. 24 Rainbows. The win was the Golden Hurricane's 36th over a four-year span and marked the program's third consecutive bowl triumph. His star pupils included first-team All-Conference USA performers Nick Bunting, Chris Chamberlain and Nelson Coleman. The three rank among the top 10 tacklers in school history, a list topped by Coleman who had an impressive 413 career stops. Bunting finished his career as one of the most decorated linebackers ever at Tulsa. He was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2006 and the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) Newcomer of the Year in 2003.

Chamberlain, who finished fifth in Tulsa history with 352 tackles, was drafted by St. Louis in 2008 and has spent the past three seasons with the Rams.

Prior to his college coaching experience Patterson spent 16 years coaching high school football in Oklahoma and Texas. He spent two years (2000 and '02) with Graham as linebackers, defensive backs and special teams coach at Allen (Texas) High School. He also coached at Allen High School from 1995-96. Before that, he was the head football coach at Ardmore (Okla.) High School for three seasons (1997-99). At Ardmore, Patterson led his team to the District 5A-1 Championship in 1999, while earning district coach of the year honors. In 1994, Patterson was the head coach at Edmond Santa Fe (Okla.) High School. Prior to that, he served as defensive secondary coach at Edmond Memorial High School for two seasons (1992-93). He began his high school coaching career in 1988 at Altus (Okla.) High School, where he coached the outside linebackers and defensive backs for four years. He helped lead Altus to a state runner-up finish in Class 4A, while helping Edmond Memorial to a Class 6A runner-up finish in 1993.

Patterson earned his bachelor's degree in health, physical education and recreation from East Central (Okla.) University in 1986. He was a four-year letterman at defensive back for ECU and later served his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach. He earned his master's degree in kinesiology and sport studies in 2003 from Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Patterson and his wife Melissa have three daughters and one son.

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR (SAFETIES)

Chris Ball enters his fourth season at Arizona State under head coach Todd Graham, and 16th season overall. After serving as defensive passing game coordinator and safeties coach in 2012, Ball was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 2013.

Under Ball's supervision, ASU's secondary ranks first in the Pac-12 and is tied for second in the nation with an average of 1.4 interceptions per game over the past three seasons. During that same stretch Ball has coached seven Sun Devil defensive backs who have gone on to earn All-Pac-12 recognition, including Lloyd Carrington, Alden Darby, Jordan Simone, Osahon Irabor, Keelan Johnson, Robert Nelson and Damarious Randall.

In 2014, Ball mentored Randall to First-Team All-Pac-12 honors and this past spring Randall was selected in the first round (30th overall by the Green Bay Packers) of the 2015 National Football League Draft. Ball's guidance also helped lead safety Simone and cornerback Carrington to All-Pac-12 seasons. ASU's defense led the Pac-12 with 14 interceptions, including 10 from the secondary, last season.

Ball mentored three defensive backs – Robert Nelson (first team), Alden Darby (first team) and Osahon Irabor (second team) – who earned Pac-12 honors in 2013. Darby was also selected as a 2013 Senior CLASS Award® Second-Team All-American for the NCAA® Division I Football Bowl Subdivision, the only Pac-12 player to be included on the list. He led the team with 13 passes defended in 2013, which was tied for fourth in the Pac-12. Nelson's 0.4 interceptions per game mark were 19th nationally and fourth in the conference while his six interceptions also paced the Pac-12. Irabor finished eighth on the team with 54 tackles in 2013.

Both Darby (San Diego Chargers) and Nelson (Cleveland Browns) signed free agent contracts with NFL teams in 2014.

Ball made an instant impact in his first season with the Sun Devils as he ushered a turnaround that saw the secondary make drastic improvements in passing defense and passing efficiency defense. His unit led the Pac-12 in both categories and ranked third in the nation in the former (167.92 yards per game) and 10th in the nation in the latter (105.45) after finishing near the bottom of the Pac-12 in both categories in 2011. Safeties Darby and Keelan Johnson combined for eight interceptions to lead a defense that finished fourth in the nation with 21 interceptions. Johnson led the team with five interceptions and tied for 17th in the country with .38 interceptions per game. In addition, Irabor led the team with 14 passes defended and didn't have a single pass interference called against him all season.

Before coming to Arizona State, Ball worked with Washington State University, where he was defensive coordinator. He also spent time at Pitt and Alabama, mentoring numerous NFL talents.

In his four seasons at Washington State, Ball served as assistant head coach, co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach. He arrived at WSU after spending the 2007 season as secondary coach at Pitt. In 2009, Ball was named the best position coach in the Pac-10 by The Sporting News.

During his only season with the Panthers, the Pitt defense ranked fourth nationally in pass defense (167.3 ypg) and seventh in total defense (297.7 ypg).

From 2003 to 2006, Ball coached the secondary for the Alabama Crimson Tide. In 2004, Ball's secondary led the nation in pass defense, allowing just 113.1 passing yards per game and finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense. The following season the Alabama secondary ranked fifth in both pass defense (160.8 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (97.8 rating), and the Crimson Tide ranked second nationally in total defense. In 2006, Ball oversaw the progress of free safety Roman Harper, who earned All-SEC honors and was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented annually to the nation's top defensive back.

From 2000 to 2002, Ball coached defensive backs at Washington State, mentoring future NFL great Marcus Trufant. During his three seasons, WSU's defense compiled 56 interceptions, including 26 during the 2001 campaign, which tied for second nationally.

The St. Louis, Mo., native and 1981 graduate of Webster Grove High played football at Missouri Western State College and later served as a graduate assistant and defensive coordinator at his alma mater.

The 1985 All-American defensive back coached at both Northeast Missouri State (1986-87) and Akron (1987-88) before joining Mike Price's staff in 1989. He coached at Coffeyville Community College (1990-94), Western Oregon State College (1995-96) and Missouri Western State (1997-98).

Prior to joining the Cougar staff in 2000, Ball spent the 1999 season as defensive coordinator for Idaho State head coach Larry Lewis.

Ball and his wife Tandi have three children, son Brennan (22) and daughters Abby (11) and Ella Grace (4).

JACKIE SHIPP

ASSISTANT COACH (DEFENSIVE LINE)

Jackie Shipp, who has spent the past 24 years coaching college football and has coached in four national championship games, enters his third season on the Sun Devil coaching staff as defensive line coach.

In 2014, Shipp worked alongside Paul Randolph to mentor Marcus Hardison to Second-Team All-Pac-12 honors. Hardison, along with the other members of the defensive line finished with 39 sacks (13th in the nation) and 98 tackles for loss (11th in the nation).

In 2013, Shipp continued the development of defensive lineman Will Sutton, one of the Pac-12's most dominant interior linemen in recent memory. Sutton would go on to be named the Pac-12's Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. Sutton, who was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft, was also a two-time Morris Trophy Award winner and AP All-American.

Two other defensive linemen under Shipp's tutelage – Davon Coleman (Dallas Cowboys) and Gannon Conway (Indianapolis Colts) – earned Pac-12 honorable mention recognition in 2013 and signed free agent contracts with NFL teams.

Shipp was a recipient of the American Football Foundation Mike Campbell Top Assistant Coach Award and has been named by Rivals.com as a Top 25 recruiter nationally.

Before arriving at ASU Shipp, a former NFL linebacker who helped lead the Miami Dolphins to the 1985 Super Bowl, spent 14 years coaching the defensive line for head coach Bob Stoops at the University of Oklahoma. Shipp was hired by Stoops on his original staff at Oklahoma in 1999 and proceeded to coach with the Sooners in 15 bowl games, including the 2001 National Championship win (13-2) over Florida State.

He played collegiately at the University of Oklahoma (1980-83), where he was a standout linebacker, starting on Sooner squads that posted a combined 33-14-1 record, won two bowl games and captured the 1980 Big Eight Championship. Shipp earned All-Big Eight Conference honors as a junior and senior and was selected as an All-American by The Football News following his junior campaign. He still holds the all-time OU record for tackles in a single game with 23 and tackles in a single season with 189 (12 games as a sophomore in 1981). In the 1982 border clash with Texas, Shipp set the school single-game record with 23 tackles. He still ranks second in career tackles at OU with 489.

Shipp's defensive line groups consistently ranked near the top of the NCAA and the Big-12 in rushing defense. From a player development standpoint, he mentored three All-Americans at Oklahoma, including two-time recipients Tommie Harris (Lombardi Award recipient in 2003) and Gerald McCoy (Lombardi Award finalist in 2009) and, numerous all-conference performers and a host of NFL players, including a pair of Pro Bowlers. Under Shipp's tutelage, Oklahoma ranked in the top 16 nationally in quarterback sacks five of his last eight seasons. During that same stretch the Sooners ranked in the top 17 nationally in tackles for loss.

A first-round draft pick who was the overall 14th player selected by the Miami Dolphins in 1984, Shipp played five seasons in Miami and helped the team to a 48-31 record, including an AFC Championship in 1984. The Dolphins made two playoff appearances and advanced to the 1985 Super Bowl. Shipp was the Dolphins' leading tackler with 79 in 1987 and finished his career in Miami with 231 tackles.

Shipp played one year with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1988.

Shipp's coaching career began at Langston University in 1991 where he served as linebacker coach. In 1992 he moved to Central Missouri State University where he began his distinguished career coaching the defensive line. After one year coaching the defensive line at the University of Tennessee at Martin (1993), Shipp was hired to coach the defensive line at Southern Illinois University in 1994, where he stayed three years until 1996. During that time Shipp also completed coaching internships with the Green Bay Packers (1994) and with the Minnesota Vikings (1995-96).

In 1997 Shipp became the defensive line coach at Northeast Louisiana University and then was hired in 1998 as defensive line coach at the University of Alabama. After one year with the Crimson Tide Shipp was lured to the University of Oklahoma where he joined the staff of new head coach Bob Stoops.

Shipp graduated from Donart High School in 1980 in Stillwater, Oklahoma, where he was raised. He played high school football for Donart.

Shipp has two children, a son Christopher and a daughter Kaitlin.

CHIP LONG

TIGHT ENDS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR
(TIGHT ENDS/OFFENSIVE SPECIAL TEAMS)

Nine-year coaching veteran Chip Long enters his fourth season as tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator on the Sun Devil coaching staff. In 2014, Long added offensive special teams to his list of on-field responsibilities.

Long's direction and guidance played a significant role in the development of tight end Chris Coyle, ASU's top performer at the position this decade. In his senior season, Coyle finished third in the nation among tight ends with 4.38 receptions per game, averaged 14.6 yards per catch and caught four touchdowns. Coyle, who signed a free agent with the Houston Texans in 2014, finished his Sun Devil career third on the program's all-time list for most receptions by a tight end (92) while his nine touchdown grabs tied for fourth in ASU history among tight ends.

In his first season in Tempe, Long made an immediate impact as Coyle set the single-season school record for most receptions by a tight end with a team-leading 57 grabs and was one touchdown shy (5) of tying the school single-season record for touchdown receptions by a tight end.

Long, who also serves as ASU's recruiting coordinator, has appeared on Rivals.com's list of the Pac-12's top recruiters multiple times and in 2015 was in contention for the website's national recruiter of the year.

Prior to joining Todd Graham's ASU staff, Long was the tight ends and fullbacks coach at the University of Illinois in 2010 and 2011.

Long spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Arkansas, working with tight ends.

In his first season with the Illini, Long was given the task of molding tight ends and fullbacks out of a roster that was largely designed to run the spread offense. True freshmen Evan Wilson and Jay Prosch thrived under his tutelage, with Wilson starting 11 games at tight end and Prosch starting seven at fullback. Wilson caught 10 passes for 135 yards and two touchdowns on the season, while Prosch, who earned freshman all-America honors, asserted himself as a bruising blocker, most notably opening holes for running back Mikel Leshoure's school single-game record-breaking total of 330 yards against Northwestern.

At Arkansas, Long developed tight end D.J. Williams, who became the first player in school history to win the Mackey Award. As a sophomore Williams had a record-breaking season that saw him become an All-SEC first-team selection by the Associated Press and a second-team honoree by the league coaches. He finished the season as the team leader in receptions (61) and receiving yards. In 2009, Williams was again a second-team All-SEC selection by the coaches and entered 2010 as a preseason All-American.

Prior to his stint in Fayetteville, Long spent two seasons at the University of Louisville and worked with the wide receivers and quarterbacks.

A receiver and tight end for North Alabama, Long was a multi-year starter and in 2005 earned All-America, first-team All-South Region and first-team All-Gulf South Conference honors. He helped the Lions to the NCAA Division II semifinals in 2003 and 2005.

In the summer of 2010, Long was named as the tight end for the Gulf South Conference All-Decade Team. A native of Birmingham, Ala., Long received his bachelor's degree in history with minors in both psychology and business administration.

DeVAUGHN ALEXANDER

ASSISTANT COACH (WRS/OFF. PASSING GAME COORDINATOR)

The 2015 season will be DeVaughn Alexander's 20th year in the coaching ranks and his fourth season as ASU's offensive passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach.

Alexander's receivers accounted for 57 percent of ASU's touchdowns and 61 percent of its total yardage last season. Under his tutelage wide receivers Jaelen Strong (All-Pac-12), Gary Chambers and Cameron Smith posted career seasons in 2014. The trio helped lead the Sun Devils to 37 points a game (16th in the nation) and 34 receiving touchdowns (13th in the nation.) Alexander continued to develop the special talents of Strong, who hauled in 82 catches (third-highest single-season total in school history) for 1,165 yards and 10 touchdowns. This past spring the Houston Texans selected Strong in the third round of the annual NFL Draft.

Strong had a breakout season in 2013, his first season as a Sun Devil, as he led the team in receptions (75), yards (1,122) and touchdown receptions (7). Strong became the first Sun Devil to have more than one 100-yard receiving game (three) in his first four starts.

Another factor in the effectiveness of ASU's passing game has been the play of the running backs, who accounted for more than 200 receptions and more than 2,200 yards to go along with 20-plus touchdowns in 2012 and 2013. D.J. Foster and Marion Grice were two of the main playmakers out of the backfield as the duo combined for 192 receptions, 2,049 yards and 22 touchdowns during the aforementioned two-year stretch. Foster would continue to make plays out of the backfield last season as he caught 59 passes for 646 yards and three touchdowns.

Working in concert with offensive coordinator Mike Norvell, ASU's passing game thrived in 2012 as Sun Devil pass catchers helped (then) first-year quarterback Taylor Kelly establish a single-season school record for completion percentage. In addition, they also caught 33 balls for touchdowns, the second most in school history.

Before joining ASU, Alexander spent five seasons with the Wisconsin Badgers, coaching wide receivers. While with the Badgers, Alexander was a part of two Big Ten championships and five bowl appearances, including back-to-back Rose Bowls his last two seasons. No stranger to the Pac-12, Alexander has coached at both Oregon State and USC.

While at Wisconsin, Alexander saw the Badgers offense turn in some of the most prolific passing seasons in program history. During the 2011 season, Wisconsin passed for 3,280 yards, the highest total in school history. All-Big Ten receiver Nick Toon led the team with 64 catches for 926 yards and 10 scores. His 926 yards were the fifth-highest total in school history. Toon left Madison, Wisc., with the third-most receiving yards in school history and the fifth-most touchdown receptions. In 2009 UW passed for the fourth-highest yardage total in school history (2,770 yards).

Prior to his tenure at Wisconsin, Alexander served as the running backs coach, assistant travel coordinator, assistant special teams coordinator and NCAA rules representative at the University of San Diego from 2005 to 2006 under then-coach Jim Harbaugh. The Toreros, who led the nation in offense in 2005 won their conference title, in 2005 and 2006.

Alexander spent the 2003 and 2004 seasons in Corvallis, Ore., coaching the Oregon State wide receivers while also serving as recruiting coordinator. OSU placed wide receivers on the All-Pac-10 First Team during each of his two seasons with the Beavers. He arrived at Oregon State after coaching wide receivers and quarterbacks at UNLV from 2000 to 2002. He was also the passing game coordinator for the Rebels in 2000 and 2001. Alexander-coached players earned first-team All-Mountain West accolades in each of his three years there. He also coached at UNLV in 1998.

Alexander worked for the San Diego Chargers as a senior offensive assistant (running backs) and also had responsibilities with quality control, video analysis, opponent summaries and self scout.

Alexander began his coaching career in 1995, working as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, USC. Alexander lettered in football and track at USC and earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences/history in 1995. He played for two bowl-winning teams (1992 Freedom Bowl and 1994 Cotton Bowl) and has coached in 13 bowl games (including seven bowl wins - 1996 Rose Bowl, 2000 and 2003 Las Vegas Bowls and 2004 Insight.com Bowl, 2009 Champs Sports Bowl, 2012 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl, 2013 National University Holiday Bowl and the 2014 Hyundai Sun Bowl).

A native of Los Angeles, Alexander's family includes his wife, Star, and children: JD, Jalen and Drew.

JOSH MARTIN

ASSISTANT COACH (RUNNING BACKS)

Josh Martin enters his first season on the Arizona State coaching staff as assistant coach, working with the running backs. He spent last season on the Sun Devil Staff as an offensive graduate assistant.

Martin worked closely with the offensive line last season, where he worked with First Team All-Pac-12 left guard Jamil Douglas and Second Team All-Pac-12 center Nick Kelly. The combination of Douglas and Kelly paved the way for D.J. Foster to record a 1,000-yard rushing campaign and played a pivotal role in the Sun Devil offense recording a 91-percent conversion rate on red zone trips (12th in the nation) and scoring 37 points per game (16th in nation.) Douglas would go on to be drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Martin spent two years with Tarleton State University, his alma mater, as the offensive line coach prior to arrive at Arizona State. Tarleton State split the Division II Lone Star Conference championship in 2013 and finished third in the conference in 2012 with Martin on the staff.

Martin's offensive line at TSU helped post an impressive 222.0 yards per game in 2013, good for third in the Lone Star Conference and 176.10 yards per game in 2012 that was also third in the conference. The 2012 squad allowed just 1.5 sacks per game, also good for third in the conference.

Prior to that, he spent time at Texas Tech University as an assistant with the offensive and defensive lines.

Martin was a three-year starter at offensive guard and tackle at Tarleton State and graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Exercise and Sports Studies.

SHAWN GRISWOLD

HEAD COACH OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Shawn Griswold enters his fourth season as the Arizona State University head coach of sports performance. Griswold came to ASU from the University of Pittsburgh, where he was one of Sun Devil head football coach Todd Graham's first hires upon taking over that program. Graham has called Griswold "the best strength and conditioning coach in America."

Prior to joining the Pitt staff, Griswold spent three seasons as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at Tulsa under Graham. Griswold's efforts were instrumental in helping Tulsa field one of the country's most explosive teams over the past decade. The highly-conditioned Golden Hurricane averaged nearly 80 plays a game in 2010, ranking fifth nationally in total offense, sixth in scoring and 15th in rushing yards. Tulsa's mentally tough defense ranked third in turnovers forced.

Griswold had two stints at Tulsa (2004-06 and 2008-10) as Director of Strength and Conditioning. During that time the Golden Hurricane earned four bowl berths and captured the 2005 Conference USA championship. In addition to working with the football team, he also had oversight of the entire strength and conditioning program for Tulsa athletics. He spent the 2007 season in Louisville as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cardinals.

Prior to Tulsa, Griswold spent five years as head strength and conditioning coordinator at his alma mater, Utah State. He oversaw the athletic development for 16 varsity sports and was directly responsible for designing the strength and conditioning programs for football, basketball and volleyball.

A former football student-athlete at USU, Griswold's career began as a graduate assistant coach for the Aggies before he was promoted to Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator.

Griswold earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Utah State. He received a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1996 and a masters of science degree in 1998.

JOSH STORMS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Josh Storms is in his eighth year on the Sports Performance staff at Arizona State. In his role, Storms serves as the lead assistant to Head Sports Performance Coach Shawn Griswold in the physical development of the Sun Devil football team. Before arriving at ASU in January of 2005, Storms was an assistant strength coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas for more than two years, where in addition to assisting with football team, he worked with the Rebel track and field, men's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams. Prior to his time at UNLV he was a seasonal assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Minnesota Vikings in 2001. Storms graduated from the University of South Dakota (2001) where he played tight end, and completed his Master's degree at ASU in 2006. Josh is certified through both the CSCCa and the NSCA. He is married to Darcie, his wife of ten years, and they are expecting their first child this summer.

CHRIS DESROSIERS

SENIOR ASSISTANT COACH OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Chris enters his fourth year at Arizona State University and is the current Senior Assistant Coach for Sports Performance. He assists with the Sun Devil football program and is personally responsible for the men's and women's track and field programs. Chris earned his undergraduate degree from Springfield College in Applied Exercise Science (2008). During his undergraduate term he interned with several schools throughout the northeast including the University of Maine, University of Massachusetts, College of the Holy Cross, and also spent time with the NFL's Buffalo Bills. He then moved on to become a graduate assistant at Florida State University where he earned a masters degree in Sports Administration (2010). While at Florida State, Chris worked with several teams including football, swimming and diving, track and field, baseball, softball, tennis, volleyball and golf. Chris then joined the Florida State Football strength staff for the 2010 season. Chris holds certifications with USA weightlifting, the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Association.

TIM CASSIDY

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL

Tim Cassidy joined the Arizona State University football program as the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Football in January 2012. Cassidy spent the previous four seasons as the Associate Athletic Director for football at Texas A&M University and is widely considered one of the top football administrators in the country.

Cassidy had 23 years of experience at Texas A&M rising from graduate assistant to recruiting coordinator, to assistant athletic director, to associate athletic director. During his career at Texas A&M, Cassidy was part of several championship teams. He was part of the 1985 and 1986 Southwest Conference Champions, the 1991, 1992 and 1993 Southwest Conference Championship squads, as well as the 1997, 1998 and 2010 Big 12 South title teams and the 1998 overall Big 12 Champion unit.

Cassidy coordinated travel, recruiting, budget and staffing for the football office, assisted with scheduling and oversaw the compliance, strength and conditioning, equipment and academic support units regarding football and he supervised the football support staffs.

Cassidy served as the associate athletic director for football at the University of Nebraska before his recent stint with the Aggies. In addition to working with the football staff and assisting in recruiting efforts, Cassidy was a key member of the athletic administration with the Huskers.

With more than 30 years of experience working in college football, Cassidy was instrumental in the planning of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex that houses the Nebraska football team, coaches' offices, training room, weight room and administrative offices. He also assisted with the planning for the Texas A&M Bright Football Complex and the Nye Academic Center - a $28 million venture. The Bright Complex houses all of the football areas while the Nye Academic Center is an academic area for all Aggie student-athletes.

Cassidy had three tours of duty with the Aggies. He came to A&M from Morningside College where he was an assistant football coach from 1981-83. He joined Jackie Sherrill's Texas A&M staff as a graduate assistant in recruiting in 1983-84 and was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 1985-86. Cassidy was also the recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida from 1987-88.

Cassidy and his wife Nancy have three children: Ryan (30), Austin (27) and Danielle (25). His wife is a senior accounting lecturer at ASU's W.P. Carey School of Business.

PATRICK SUDDES

ASSISTANT ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR RECRUITING

Patrick Suddes enters his second year as Assistant Athletics Director for Recruiting on head coach Todd Graham's staff.

"I'm excited to come to Arizona State and work under a great teacher and leader like coach Graham," Suddes said. "I have been fortunate to work for two future hall of fame coaches in Nick Saban and Mack Brown, and it is clear coach Graham is in the same mold as them."

"My professional background began in the Southeast and the state of Texas, and to be able to combine that knowledge with the abundance of talent that lies in Arizona and throughout the West Coast is a perfect fit for me. ASU, with its great campus, loyal fan base and dedicated staff, offers endless opportunities and I'm looking forward to helping the program grow in all capacities."

Suddes served as the Director of Player Personnel at the University of Texas under Mack Brown during the 2013 season and previously spent six seasons at the University of Alabama under head coach Nick Saban.

"Patrick has solidified himself as a real asset in this business and has worked for some of the most respected coaches and administrators at two of the most notable programs in the country," Graham said. "He knows what it takes to succeed at the highest level and his wealth of experience in all aspects of football operations will help further our goal of bringing a championship to Tempe."

While at Texas, Suddes' duties included organizing weekly recruiting meetings, developing monthly recruiting initiatives, coordinating and monitoring all recruiting events and day-to-day activities, overseeing summer camps and coaching clinics, and creating a marketing and strategic plan that included social media expansion and mobile app development.

"Patrick is a real star in the recruiting business," Brown said. "He's unbelievably organized, thorough and tireless. He did a tremendous job at Alabama, reshaped our recruiting efforts at Texas and will be a great asset to Todd and his staff at Arizona State."

Suddes was part of Saban's staff at his alma mater, Alabama, from 2007-13, and spent his last five seasons in Tuscaloosa as Associate Director of Football Operations for a program that won three national championships in four seasons. His role consisted of supervising and planning the annual coaching clinic, coordinating team travel, overseeing youth and high school camps, team practice organization, overseeing the annual team banquet, and the organization and evaluation of the walk-on program.

Prior to his time in football operations, Suddes served one year as Associate Director of Recruiting and Video Services at Alabama, where he oversaw all day-to-day recruiting operations, collected and prepared recruiting film for coaches evaluation, maintained the team recruiting board, helped organize and plan all recruiting events such as junior day and prospect visits and managed all organization of the summer camps.

Suddes spent two seasons under Saban with the Miami Dolphins, including 2005 as a Defensive Assistant and 2006 as an Offensive Assistant. He was responsible for quality control, including breakdown and scouting reports of opponents, organizing game plans and self-scouting, in both positions.

A 2005 graduate of Alabama, Suddes began his career in 2004 as a recruiting intern at LSU where he assisted in day-to-day recruiting operations and quality control on offense and defense.

TAYLOR KELLY

GRADUATE ASSISTANT - OFFENSE

Taylor Kelly enters his first season as a graduate assistant with the Sun Devils, working primarily with the quarterbacks and the scout team.

Kelly graduated from ASU in May 2014 with a Bachelor of Arts in Educational Studies and is working toward a Master's of Legal Studies with a focus in Sports Law and Business. He was a four-year letterwinner and three-time Pac-12 All-Academic honoree, including a first-team member in 2014 and a second-team member in 2013, and was named the Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

A native of Eagle, Idaho, Kelly was named one of the 12 finalists for the 2014 Senior CLASS Award and the Wuerffel Trophy, which honors the college football player who exhibits exemplary community service. He was also named a finalist of the 2014 Campbell Trophy, which is college football's premier scholar-athlete award and recognizes an individual as the absolute best scholar-athlete in the nation.

Kelly was recognized as a member of the 2015 National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society, the 2014-15 Valley of the Sun Chapter College Scholar Athlete of the Year, and 2014 NFF National Scholar-Athlete.

On the field, Kelly finished his career with a school-record 10,223 career yards of total offense. He was just the third player in school history with 10,000-plus career yards of total offense. He also set the school record for most career rushing yards by a quarterback with 1,404. Kelly helped lead the Sun Devils to back-to-back 10-win seasons and three straight bowl appearances

RAY BROWN

GRADUATE ASSISTANT - DEFENSE

Ray Brown enters his second season on the Sun Devils coaching staff as a defensive graduate assistant. Before his time with the Sun Devils, Brown was a defensive graduate assistant at Washington State during the 2013 season where he helped mentor First Team All-American and NFL.com top-rated safety Deone Bucannon, currently a member of the Arizona Cardinals. He spent two seasons at Oklahoma Baptist University in Oklahoma City as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach. Prior to Oklahoma Baptist, Brown held the same positions at East Central University (Okla.), his alma mater, where he helped the Tigers claim the Lone Star Conference North championship in 2010. The Oklahoma City, Okla. native was a four-year starter at defensive back for the Tigers, graduating with a degree in business marketing in 2009 and later earning his master's degree in sports administration in 2011.

JARRED HOLLEY

GRADUATE ASSISTANT - DEFENSE

Jarred Holley enters his first season as a graduate assistant with the Sun Devils after a productive career at Pitt. The defensive back was a four-year starter for the Panthers. Holley was a two-time All-Big East selection at safety and also a two-time Big East All-Academic selection. Holley finished his career with 11 interceptions and over 200 career tackles. He earned his bachelor's degree in communication and participated in the Pittsburgh Steelers rookie camp.

KENNY DILLINGHAM

GRADUATE ASSISTANT - OFFENSE

Kenny Dillingham enters his second season with the Sun Devil football program and first as a graduate assistant. Dillingham spent the 2014 season working in quality control for the Sun Devils and worked with the tight ends on the program. Prior to that, Dillingham was an assistant coach and offensive coordinator at Chaparral High School in Phoenix from 2007-2014.

SUPPORT STAFF

TYLER FRIEDRICH

ASSISTANT COACH OF
SPORTS PERFORMANCE

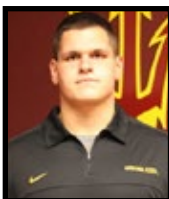

Tyler enters his second year at Arizona State University. He assists with the Sun Devil football program and is personally responsible for the men's and women's swimming and wrestling programs. Prior to coming to Arizona State, Tyler worked as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning coach at the University of Dayton where he assisted with football, volleyball, track and field, women's basketball, men's and women's soccer and women's cross country. He was also directly responsible for implementing the strength and conditioning programs for men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and the women's rowing program. Tyler had various internships first at an Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, NY (2010) and at LSU (2011) working primarily with the football strength and conditioning program. He started his strength and conditioning career at the University of Dayton working as a student assistant while he also was a four-year letterwinner in football, part of three Pioneer Football League championship teams, twice named First Team All-PFL and voted team captain as a senior. Tyler earned both his undergraduate degree in Exercise Physiology (2010) and graduate degree in Exercise Science (2012) from the University of Dayton. In 2011 he worked as a Graduate Assistant for the Health and Sport Science Department at the University of Dayton where he taught exercise physiology lab courses and worked as a graduate student assistant strength coach. Tyler holds certifications with USA weightlifting and the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

KODY COOK

COACHING ASSISTANT FOR
SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Kody enters his second year with the Sports Performance staff at Arizona State University. Kody earned his B.S. in Exercise Sports Science from the University of Tulsa (2011) where he was a member of the Tulsa football team for 3 seasons after transferring from the University of Oklahoma.

Kody was promoted from graduate assistant to coaching assistant in May 2014 and is now responsible for tennis, gymnastics and water polo. He finished his masters at ASU in Spring of 2014 and is now certified through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

MARCUS CASTRO-WALKER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Marcus Castro-Walker enters his first season as the Director of Player Personnel for Sun Devil Football. Marcus began his time at Sun Devil Athletics with the Office of Student-Athlete Development (OSAD) in June 2008 as a graduate assistant while obtaining his Masters Degree in Higher and Post-secondary Education at Arizona State University. Upon Graduation (2011) from his Masters program, Marcus was hired full time to work with the football team as one of the three academic coaches that supports the program. In that role he was responsible for the academic development of football student-athletes for three seasons. He assisted students in securing necessary academic support and life skills training to assure quality academic decision making and to support their personal development.

Marcus is a graduate of Eastern Washington University, where he earned his BA in Communication Studies. He was born in Toronto, Canada where he then moved to Pullman, Washington to with family Mike Walker (father) Canadian Football League coach, Kristen Walker (mother) Pullman High School track coach and teacher, Lucy Castro (mother), brother John (rest in peace) and two sisters Taylor (student-athlete at Eastern Washington University), and Payton. Marcus currently lives in the Phoenix area with wife Esperanza, son Amare, and daughter Monica.

RYAN SILVERFIELD

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ANALYST

Ryan Silverfield joins the Sun Devil Football program as a Senior Offensive Analyst. Silverfield holds 17 years of coaching experience at the both the collegiate and professional levels, and has worked on both sides of the ball. He has the distinct recognition of coaching the single-season rushing leaders in both the NCAA and the NFL as he worked with Kevin Smith at Central Florida and Adrian Peterson at the Minnesota Vikings.

Prior to coming to Tempe, Silverfield spent the 2014 season at the University of Toledo, where he worked with the offensive line and served as an offensive consultant. The Rockets' offense led the conference in scoring and RB Kareem Hunt finished second in the country in yards per carry. Center Greg Mancz was named MVP of the MAC, making it the first time an offensive lineman was named MVP in conference history.

Silverfield coached for the Minnesota Vikings for six seasons, and helped the Vikings reach the playoffs in three of the six years, including the NFC Championship game. He assisted with the offensive line for the three seasons as the group continued to grow into one of the NFL's top units. The Vikings ranked in the NFL's top eight in rushing each of the three seasons Silverfield assisted with the line, ranking fourth in 2011, second in 2012 and eighth in 2013.

DANNY PHILLIPS

ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING COORDINATOR

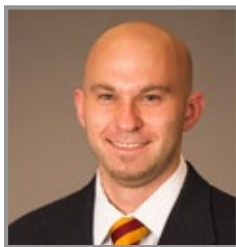

Danny Phillips enters his third year on head coach Todd Graham's staff, and first as an On-Campus Recruiting Manager. Phillips has served as a Defensive Analyst for the Sun Devil staff the past two seasons. Before his time with the Sun Devils, Phillips served as the athletic director and head football coach at Central High School, located in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Phillips led the Braves to a 16-14 record over three seasons.

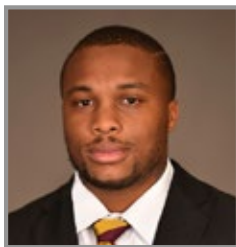

In 2006, Phillips served as a special teams coordinator and defensive line coach at Rice University, helping the team achieve a 7-6 overall record and its first bowl appearance in 45 years. With the addition of Phillips, Rice's defensive national ranking improved from 109th in 2005 to 60th in 2006. From 2003-06, Phillips operated as the defensive line coach at the University of Tulsa. During his three seasons at Tulsa, Phillips led the defensive line to achieve a 29-22 overall record, and in 2005 a Conference USA Championship. Prior to working at the University of Tulsa, Phillips spent 2002 as a graduate assistant at West Virginia University, working directly with the linebackers.

Phillips attended the University of Central Oklahoma from 1991 to 1994 where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Health and Physical Education, as well as a minor in General Science and Biology.

Bryan Caldwell
(1960-2015)

George Montgomery
(1971-2014)

Chad Lindsey
(1987-2015)

This space is dedicated to three Sun Devils for Life that have passed over the course of the past year. Bryan Caldwell (1960-2015) helped lead one of the top defenses in the nation in his time at ASU and went on to be drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1983. George Montgomery (1971-2014) was a Sun Devil captain and starting running back during his time with ASU from 1989-1993. Chad Lindsey (1987-2015) was a linebacker for the Sun Devils from 2005-08.

RANKINGS AND STREAKS

ASU IN THE PRESEASON RANKINGS

Since the AP began a preseason poll, ASU has been ranked 19 times to begin the year. The Sun Devils were tabbed No. 3 in 1976, behind Nebraska and Michigan. Of the 21 times ASU has appeared in the AP preseason poll, 1976 and 1998 are the only times the Sun Devils were in the top 10.

ASU IN THE FINAL POLLS

Arizona State has been ranked nationally at season's end 17 times. The Sun Devils' highest ranking came in 1975 when they finished second nationally in both major polls (Associated Press-media, United Press International-coaches) behind national champion Oklahoma.

ASU's 10-1-1 team of 1986, which completed its Pac-10 title season by defeating Michigan 22-15 in the Rose Bowl, was ranked fourth and fifth nationally by AP and UPI, respectively. In 1996, ASU completed an undefeated (11-0) regular season before losing to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, finishing ranked fourth in both major polls.

Here are ASU's final national rankings:

ASSISTANT COACHES

Hue Jackson spent four years at Arizona State as an assistant coach. Jackson was ASU's running backs coach from 1992 to 1994, and then handled the Sun Devil quarterbacks in 1995. Jackson has coached on multiple NFL teams that include the Washington Redskins, Atlanta Falcons, Baltimore Ravens, Oakland Raiders and Cincinnati Bengals. He was given the head-coaching job for the Raiders during the 2011-2012 season. He currently is the offensive coordinator for the Bengals.

Mike Martz was an assistant football coach for Arizona State. From 1983 to 1987 he coached the quarterbacks and receivers, then became the offensive coordinator from 1988 to 1991. Martz would become offensive coordinator and the mastermind of the St. Louis Rams' Greatest Show on Turf. After helping St. Louis earn a Super Bowl victory in 1999, he would become head coach for the next five seasons and would again take the team on another Super Bowl trip.

Lovie Smith began coaching linebackers on the college level in 1983. He joined the Sun Devil coaching staff as an assistant coach from 1988 to 1991. Smith would go on to the pros and serve as head coach of the Chicago Bears from 2004 to 2012. In 2006, he would lead the Bears to a Super Bowl appearance against the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLII. Currently, he serves as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Playing in its first Sun Bowl appearance since 2004, Arizona State scored the go-ahead touchdown in the waning minutes, and held off the Duke Blue Devils on their final drive to win its second bowl game under Todd Graham in three seasons. Freshman running back Demario Ruchard scored four touchdowns -- two on the ground and two more receiving -- to double his regular season touchdown total and grab the game's MVP award. Defensive end Marcus Hardison wrapped up Duke players 13 times in the game to lead the Arizona State defense. In his final game as the starting quarterback for ASU, Taylor Kelly completed 24 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns.

Following a 10-win regular season and a Pac-12 South Division title, the Sun Devils earned a berth in their third consecutive bowl game and traveled to San Diego to take on the Texas Tech Red Raiders. Quarterback Taylor Kelly and running back D.J. Foster each eclipsed 100 rushing yards in the game, marking the first time a Sun Devil duo had accomplished the feat in the same game since 1999, while safety Damarious Randall paced the defense with 11 tackles and a forced fumble. Twenty-six seniors played in their final game at ASU, including two-time Pac-12 Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year Will Sutton and nine other starters.

Arizona State	21	13	28	0	62
Navy	0	7	7	14	28

The Arizona State University football team put it in the left lane with the hammer down early and often as the team routed Navy, 62-28, to win the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco. A 34-7 halftime lead set the tone for a dominating third quarter that saw ASU score four touchdowns - three of which coming in 55 seconds or less - as the team set a new school record for points scored in a bowl game. The 28 points was the most scored in a quarter in ASU bowl history. The Sun Devils finished with 648 yards of total offense - over 50 more than the team's previous highest total this season of 593 yards against Colorado and among the top-10 highest-grossing offensive games in school history and the most since putting up a school record 773 yards against Northwestern in 2005. At 9.6 yards per play today, the Sun Devils were just shy of the NCAA Division I bowl record of 9.9, set in the 2011 Orange Bowl by Stanford. Taylor Kelly finished 17-of-19 for 268 yards and four touchdowns in three quarters of action before letting the reserves take it home. He finished his debut season as ASU's quarterback with 29 touchdown passes, good for second on ASU's all-time single-season list. Marion Grice had 159 yards on 14 attempts with two touchdowns and finished his season with 19 touchdowns - the third highest single-season scoring tally in school history. The performance garnered him the Offensive MVP honor for the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2007 HOLIDAY BOWL

Texas 52, Arizona State 34

December 27 • San Diego Qualcomm Stadium • Attendance: 64,020

Arizona State	0	10	10	14	34
Texas	21	7	7	17	52

Despite possessing a come-from-behind ability that was demonstrated time and again throughout the 2007 season, a 21-point first quarter deficit would prove to be too much for Arizona State to overcome as the No. 19 Texas Longhorns defeated the No. 11 Sun Devils 52-34 in the 2007 Holiday Bowl. The Longhorns scored touchdowns on three of their first five possessions to take a 21-0 lead late in the first quarter. Chris McGaha's first touchdown reception of the season, a seven-yard toss from Rudy Carpenter, got the Sun Devils on the scoreboard early in the second quarter, cutting Texas' lead to 21-7. Texas would build its lead back up to 21 when Longhorn QB Colt McCoy took it in from nine yards out. A 32-yard field goal by Lou Groza Award winner Thomas Weber reduced Texas' lead to 28-10 at the intermission. Weber would connect on another field goal early in the third quarter, this one from 46 yards, to bring the Sun Devils within 15 points, 28-13. The remainder of the third quarter would see the teams exchange touchdowns before a 10-point flurry by the Longhorns early in the fourth quarter would put the game out of reach for ASU. With ASU facing an all-but-insurmountable deficit, Danny Sullivan was inserted at quarterback for the remainder of the game. The Los Gatos, Calif. native performed admirably (7-14-118 yds, 1 TD, 1 INT), leading the Sun Devils on a pair of touchdown drives to get them within 11 points, 45-34, with 3:42 left in the game. After an unsuccessful onsidess kick attempt, Texas RB Jamaal Charles, who ran for 161 yards, closed out the scoring with a 32-yard scoring run. Before leaving the game, Carpenter threw for 187 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Dimitri

Nance (18 att. 48 yards) led the Sun Devils rushing attack while McGaha tied his career best with a game-high nine receptions for 79 yards. Mike Jones led all receivers on the field with 107 yards (eight receptions) and two touchdowns.

2006 HAWAII BOWL

Hawai'i 41, Arizona State 24

December 24 • Honolulu Aloha Stadium • Attendance: 40,623

Hawaii	0	3	21	17	41
Arizona State	3	7	0	14	24

The fifth edition of the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl went to the Hawai'i Warriors as they beat ASU 41-24 at Aloha Stadium. Despite holding the nation's top-ranked offense to only three points in the first half, the Sun Devils could not shut down the Warriors in the second half. The first half was not what many expected from two high-scoring teams, as Arizona State used time consuming drives and attacking defense to hold off the Hawai'i offense for most of the first 30 minutes. A 44-yard Jesse Ainsworth field goal opened the scoring near the end of the first quarter, but Hawai'i tied the game at three in the opening minutes of the second. Rudy Carpenter gave the Devils a 10-3 halftime lead when he found wide out Brandon Smith in the end zone from 37-yards out for the touchdown. Hawai'i quarterback Colt Brennan found his rhythm in the second half, as Hawai'i scored 24 straight points before Ryan Torain found the goal line to cut the lead to 27-17. ASU would close to within three when Carpenter hooked up with Michael Jones from four yards away, but Brennan and the Warriors scored the game's final 14 points to pull away for the 41-24 victory. Rudy Carpenter had two touchdown tosses and Ryan Torain ran for 160 yards and a score, but it wasn't enough as Warriors QB, Colt Brennan, threw five touchdowns passes to lead Hawai'i to the victory.

2005 INSIGHT BOWL

Arizona State 45, Rutgers 40

December 27 • Phoenix Chase Field • Attendance: 43,536

Arizona State	7	10	14	14	45
Rutgers	17	7	6	10	40

Led by quarterback, Rudy Carpenter, who threw for 467 yards and four scores, Arizona State rolled up an Insight Bowl record 678 yards in total offense on its way to a 45-40 win over Rutgers. Carpenter, a redshirt freshman who took over for injured Sam Keller eight games into the season, completed 23-of-35 passes with no interceptions to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors. After trailing for much of the game, ASU took its first lead, 31-27, with 6:37 left in the third quarter following Carpenter's 22-yard touchdown pass to Terry Richardson. The Scarlet Knights, who played ASU in their only other bowl appearance in 1978, recaptured the lead, 33-31, after Jeremy Ito's 48-yard field goal with 12:56 to play. However, no sooner was it that the Sun Devils would take the lead for good after Carpenter threw a 42-yard touchdown pass to Matt Miller. Combined with a successful two-point conversion ASU led 39-33 with 10 minutes left. It was the second time in the game that Carpenter and Miller connected for a score after the two teamed up for a 43-yard touchdown in the first quarter to tie the game at 7-7. Miller had a game-high 135 yards receiving on five receptions. ASU would extend its lead after sophomore running back Rudy Burgess, who had 103 yards rushing on 16 carries, culminated a 69-yard drive with a four-yard run to give ASU a 45-33 lead with 4:26 remaining. A 29-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Hart to Tres Moses with two minutes left made the final score 45-40. Hart led the Scarlet Knights with 374 yards passing and three touchdown passes while Moses had a game-high seven receptions for 113 yards. Also providing a spark to the Rutgers offense was running back Ray Rice, who had 108 yards rushing. Rutgers took the opening kickoff and went 80 yards in eight plays to take an early 7-0 lead after Hart found Clark Harris for a one-yard score. The Scarlet Knights would lead by as many as 14 in the first half after a three-yard touchdown run by Brian Leonard gave Rutgers a 24-10 lead. The Sun Devils would get to within a touchdown before halftime after Carpenter led ASU on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Zach Miller's one-yard touchdown reception cut the lead in half, 24-17, with 39 seconds left in the half. The two teams combined to break several records including most total net yards (1,211), most net yards passing (841) and most first downs (57). Combined with its 27-23 win over Purdue in the Sun Bowl one year earlier, the 45-40 win over Rutgers gave ASU its first back-to-back bowl victories in nearly 20 years.

Purdue	0	2	7	14	23

Arizona State and Purdue made up for a slow start in the 71st Vitalis Sun Bowl by combining for 45 second-half points and a spectacular finish in front of the largest crowd (51,288) in the history of El Paso's bowl game. Sun Devil running back Rudy Burgess scored on a 19-yard screen pass from Sun Bowl MVP Sam Keller with 43 seconds remaining to give ASU a 27-23 come-from-behind victory over heavily-favored Purdue. "Nobody gave us a chance," said ASU head coach Dirk Koetter, whose team played without its starting quarterback, running back and safety. "I'm proud of the way we came back, time and time again." ASU, which finished the season 9-3 and ranked No. 19, led 3-2 after an uneventful first half. But the Sun Devils overcame deficits three times in an action-packed second half, including twice in the final quarter thanks to a pair of touchdown passes by Keller, making his first career start (for the injured Andrew Walter). Keller completed 25 of 45 passes for 370 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions. A 22-yard field goal by Jesse Ainsworth gave ASU a 3-0 lead with 2:35 to play in the first quarter. Purdue scored a safety in the second quarter. The Boilermakers scored on the first play from scrimmage to open the second half to make the score 9-3. ASU answered quickly when Keller hit wideout Derek Hagan with a 27-yard touchdown strike to retake the lead, 10-9 five minutes into the third quarter. Less than a minute into the fourth, Purdue's Kyle Orton found Taylor Stubblefield with a five-yard touchdown pass to give Purdue a 16-10 advantage. A 34-yard field goal from Ainsworth cut the lead to three points with 10:33 remaining and Burgess gave ASU back the lead when he broke free on a 41-yard screen play for a touchdown with 6:23 to go. A punt block by Purdue allowed the Boilers to score on a six-yard touchdown pass from Orton to Charles Davis, giving them a 23-20 lead with 1:14 left to play. But Keller marched ASU down the field in four plays, capping the drive with his second fourth-quarter screen pass to Burgess for a touchdown to give the Sun Devils their first bowl victory since the 1997 Sun Bowl. "(Burgess) did all the work (on the game-winning touchdown play)," said Keller, who thought his teammate should have at least shared the MVP trophy. "Maybe there needs to be a plate on there that says, 'Thank you Rudy.'"

The Sun Devils traveled to San Diego for the Holiday Bowl as the biggest underdogs of the bowl season against the No. 6 Kansas State Wildcats. Although they were facing the best defense in the country, the Sun Devils never trailed until the final 75 seconds of the contest. The first quarter featured no scoring and to the surprise of almost 60,000 in Qualcomm Stadium and a national television audience, the Wildcats started the second quarter with a total of minus-five yards rushing and had not advanced the ball past their own 33-yard line. The Sun Devils' following possession began what would be their second of six consecutive drives to start in Wildcat territory and ASU scored on a six-yard TD pass to Justin Taplin from Walter. Linebacker Mason Unck forced KSU quarterback Eli Roberson to fumble on the Wildcats' next possession, which led to a Mike Barth field goal to put ASU up 10-0. Darren Sproles finally got K-State its first points as he scampered 41 yards for a score on the next Wildcat drive, making the score 10-7. The exact same sequence of ASU TD, KSU fumble, ASU field goal, KSU TD would occur again before halftime, with the score being 20-14 at the break. The flow of the second half would mirror the first; a scoreless third quarter and a wild final period with Roberson leading off the fourth quarter with a three-yard TD run to leave the game tied after the extra point was fumbled. The Sun Devils had an immediate reply with a perfectly executed scoring drive as Walter threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to running back Mike Williams, giving the Sun Devils a 27-20 lead with 10:30 remaining. But another Roberson touchdown and a Derrick Evans score gave the Wildcats the 34-27 victory as the game was nearing its end. ASU defensive end Terrell Suggs sacked Roberson twice to extend his NCAA sack record to 24 on the year and was named the Defensive Player of the Game.

Boston College	10	0	14	7	31
Arizona State	7	3	0	7	17

After an emotional pregame speech on Christmas Day, Arizona State head coach, Bruce Snyder, made his last run onto the field with his Sun Devils. But, hoping for a pleasant Christmas gift in the warm tropics, ASU fell short in its second consecutive Aloha Bowl, losing to Boston College 31-17. The Devils jumped out early in the first quarter on a 14-yard burst by Tom Pace on the second play from scrimmage. However, less than two minutes later, Boston College quarterback Tim Hasselbeck got loose for a 52-yard scramble that set up an Eagle score from 10 yards out to tie the game. On the ensuing ASU drive, quarterback Jeff Krohn fumbled after being sacked, and Boston College's Derric Rossy picked up the loose ball at the Sun Devils' 19 yard-line. Boston College had to settle for a Mike Sutphin 50-yard field goal to leave ASU trailing, 10-7. Early in the second quarter, Krohn found Pace and wide receiver Richard Williams open on several key passing plays that resulted in Mike Barth's 28-yard field goal to even up the score again. The rest of the quarter would remain quiet, and both teams went in at halftime knotted at 10-10. Boston College stole the third quarter, scoring two touchdowns and keeping the Devils from getting any offensive power generated. Eagles quarterback Tim Hasselbeck hooked up with wide out Dedrick Dewalt for a 58-yard passing score and flanker Ryan Read for a 40-yard score to put the Eagles up by two touchdowns. Boston College added another seven points early in the fourth quarter and the Sun Devils were able to score late in the fourth quarter after quarterback Matt Cooper connected with Ryan Dennard for a 31-yard scoring grab.

Arizona State	0	3	0	0	3

Christmas in paradise turned out to be anything but merry for Arizona State, which fell to Wake Forest 23-3 in the Aloha Bowl. The Aloha Bowl was a tale of two halves, with the first playing itself out as a defensive struggle. Each team could only muster one field goal, with the Demon Deacons' Mike Burdick scoring at the 8:18 mark of the first quarter and Mike Barth putting one through the uprights with 11:22 remaining in the second. After halftime ASU, forced three-and-out on its first possession of the half, had the ensuing punt by Nick Murphy blocked by the Deacons and downed at their own 36. Burdick chipped in a 24-yarder on the following possession. The ASU offense then appeared to receive its wake up call when J.R. Redmond powered his way for 38 yards on a critical third-and-three situation to advance the ball to midfield. On the next play reserve tailback Gerald Green would scamper for another 15 yards. However the drive stalled and Barth then missed a 42-yard field goal attempt which would have knotted the score at six. The Demon Deacons took over at their own 24 and four plays later, Ben Sankey connected with receiver Jimmy Caldwell for a 56-yard touchdown at the 4:13 mark. From that point on the Deacon defense would clamp down, surrendering just three more first downs and not allowing the Sun Devils to advance past midfield. On offense Wake continually fed the ball to tailback Morgan Kane, who finished with 83 yards and increased the lead to 20-7 with his dive over the goal line with 11:11 left in the game. A late field goal by Burdick would ensure Wake Forest the win. Redmond was responsible for 89 of ASU's 164 total yards, and finished his stellar collegiate career as ASU's third all-time leading rusher with 3,223 yards.

After missing the 1997 Rose Bowl, oft-injured tailback Michael Martin capped his career at ASU with a heroic curtain call and led ASU to a 17-7 win over Iowa. Martin carried the ball 27 times for 169 yards, including a third-quarter touchdown that gave the Sun Devils a 17-0 lead. Martin's MVP performance eased the pressure off backup quarterback Steve Campbell, who put ASU on the scoreboard with a 35-yard strike to Lenzie Jackson in the second quarter. Campbell completed five passes for 109 yards. Just before halftime, Robert Nycz kicked a 20-yard field goal to give the Sun Devils a 10-0 lead. The 10-point spot was all the Sun Devils defense needed, slamming the door on Iowa's offense. Jeremy Staat was the defensive standout for the Sun Devils with three sacks. Defensive lineman Quincy Yancy recorded a seven-yard sack and another tackle for a loss of a yard. Hamilton Mee and Pat Tillman also found their way to the quarterback. This Sun Bowl appearance marked the first time in 10 years that ASU played bowl games in consecutive seasons.

Arizona State quarterback Jake "The Snake" Plummer scored on a dramatic 11-yard touchdown run with 1:40 left in the game to give ASU a 17-14 lead, only to see Ohio State drive 65 yards in 12 plays and score the winning touchdown with :19 remaining, giving the Buckeyes a 20-17 victory. The game was one of the most exciting Rose Bowl games in history and one of the most exciting college football games seen in a while. Plummer, who finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, completed 19 of 35 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown in the game. The touchdown pass was a spectacular 25-yard strike to wide receiver Ricky Boyer, which tied the score at seven at 10:04 in the second quarter. Ohio State had scored first in the opening stanza on a nine-yard pass from quarterback Stanley Jackson to David Boston. The game remained deadlocked at halftime and with 9:12 left in the third quarter, ASU's Robert Nycz nailed a 37-yard field goal, giving the Sun Devils their first lead, 10-7. OSU quarterback Joe Germaine wasted no time in hitting wideout Demetrius Stanley on a 72-yard scoring strike with 8:23 left in the third. Ohio State led 14-10. The game remained scoreless until the final 1:40 when Plummer and Germaine performed their heroics. The 1997 Bowl game was the most-watched college bowl game of the season, earning an 18.2 overnight rating (31 share), a full point ahead of the Florida-Florida State Sugar Bowl (17.2/25), which determined the national championship. ASU wide receiver Lenzie Jackson caught five passes for 71 yards while teammate Derek Smith tallied a game-high 18 tackles from his inside linebacking position. He added two quarterback sacks and deflected one pass.

Arizona State	0	24	3	6	33
Air Force	7	7	0	14	28

Arizona State won its second bowl game in a row, including its fourth in the last five tries, defeating Air Force, 33-28, in the Freedom Bowl. The Devils used Daniel Ford's best game (16 of 30 for 272 yards and one touchdown) and the timely running of senior backs Darryl Harris (93 yards) and Channing Williams (66 yards) to outscore the Falcons. Air Force's Greg Johnson scored from 12 yards out with 9:42 gone in the first quarter to stake the Falcons to a 7-0 lead. ASU opened the second quarter with a pair of two-yard touchdown runs by Williams (:03) and Harris (3:05). Placekicker Alan Zendejas' 36-yard field goal with 10:43 gone in the second stanza gave ASU a comfortable 17-7 lead. Before the half ended, Air Force added a touchdown while ASU scored on the ensuing drive on a 61-yard pass from Ford to Aaron Cox. In the second half, Zendejas added a 20-yard field goal, giving ASU a 27-14 lead. The Devils' scoring was capped by fullback Kirk Wendorf's 20-yard scamper to paydirt with 5:16 gone in the fourth quarter. Air Force made it interesting with two late touchdowns against ASU's reserves, making the score 33-28 with 10 seconds to play. Cox caught four aeriels for 110 yards and one touchdown. He also had one score called back because of a penalty. Freshmen Drew Metcalf and Eric Crawford each collected one interception for the evening.

January 1 • Pasadena, Calif.

The Rose Bowl • Attendance: 103,168

Arizona State	0	13	6	3	22
Michigan	8	7	0	0	15

Arizona State held Michigan scoreless in the second half and defeated the Wolverines 22-15 in ASU's first Rose Bowl appearance. Quarterback Jeff Van Raaphorst outdueled his more fabled opponent, Michigan's Jim Harbaugh, and threw two touchdown passes to flanker Bruce Hill, the second of which gave ASU its first lead, 19-15, in the third quarter. Van Raaphorst had hooked up with Hill in the second period on a 4-yard scoring strike just before halftime that got ASU within two points at 15-13. Michigan put a scare into the Sun Devils, taking a 15-3 lead less than six minutes into the second quarter. Michigan took the opening kickoff and drove 66 yards in five minutes for the game's first score, an 18-yard run by tailback Jamie Morris. A two-point conversion gave the Wolverines an 8-0 lead. ASU countered with a 37-yard Kent Bostrom field goal early in the second quarter, one of three in the game for Bostrom, tying a Rose Bowl record. ASU dominated the second half, becoming one of the very few teams to hold Michigan without second half points in the past three seasons. While the Sun Devils were piling up 11 first downs and 166 yards of total offense, ASU's defense was holding Michigan to four first downs and 76 yards, including a net rushing total of minus-5 yards. ASU took the second half kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, culminating with Van Raaphorst's one-yard toss to Hill for the go-ahead score. Hill's spectacular catch at the back of the end zone tied a Rose Bowl record for most TD passes caught in a game with two. ASU then tacked on another Bostrom field goal, a 25-yarder at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Van Raaphorst was named the game's most valuable offensive player, as he completed 16 of 30 passes for 193 yards and two scores with no interceptions. Tailback Darryl Harris led all rushers with 109 yards on 23 carries, while fullback Channing Williams had 69 yards for ASU. ASU defenders frustrated Harbaugh, holding the nation's top-rated passer to 13 completions and 172 yards, and ASU intercepted Harbaugh twice, including a theft by safety Robby Boyd that iced the game late in the fourth quarter.

Arizona State	3	11	0	3	17
Arkansas	7	0	0	11	18

Arkansas survived a last-second scare by Arizona State and defeated the Sun Devils 18-17 in a thriller at Jack Murphy Stadium. Place-kicker Kent Bostrom, who had kicked field goals of 47, 22, and 28 yards, missed a 59-yard attempt with time running out to secure the Razorback win. In the seesaw battle, Arkansas had scored with 23 seconds remaining on a Kendall Trainor 37-yard field goal to stake an 18-17 lead. It was the first Arkansas lead since it led 7-3 in the first quarter. Senior tailback Darryl Clack, playing in his final game as a Sun Devil, returned Trainor's ensuing kickoff 37 yards to the 37-yard line. With time ticking away, quarterback Jeff Van Raaphorst hit split end Aaron Cox for 21 yards and a first down at the Arkansas 42. Van Raaphorst passed again, this time to receiver Paul Day. But Day could not hang on at the 22-yard line on a nice play by roverback Odis Lloyd of Arkansas, setting up Bostrom's three-point try. Arizona State scored its only touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Van Raaphorst to Cox just before the half. Van Raaphorst finished the game with 167 yards and one touchdown on 14 of 27 passing. Tailback Mike Crawford, who was the holder on the field goal try, rushed for 103 yards on 18 carries. ASU inside linebacker Greg Battle earned the game's most valuable defender award.

Arizona State came off NCAA probation with a resounding 32-21 victory over Oklahoma its first major network television appearance since 1980. The Sooners led 7-0 after one quarter before the Devils scored the game's next eight points. Two Luis Zendejas field goals and a safety gave the Sun Devils a short-lived 8-7 advantage. Following an Oklahoma TD, Zendejas added his third three-pointer of the game, a record-setting 54-yarder as the halftime gun sounded, cutting Oklahoma's lead to 13-11. After alternating possessions for the first five minutes of the third stanza, Arizona State drove 43 yards on four plays, capped by a 15-yard run by Darryl Clack, to give the Devils an 18-13 lead. However, the Sooners engineered a drive of their own, followed by a successful two-point conversion that gave them a 21-18 lead after 45 minutes of play. Twenty-eight seconds into the final quarter, ASU's Alvin Moore scored from a yard out to give the Devils a 25-21 margin. On the Devil's next possession, QB Todd Hons, who threw for 329 yards in the game, connected with speedster Ron Brown on a 52-yard pass play for the game's final score. Hons was named offensive most valuable player for the Devils while defensive end Jim Jeffcoat received the same honor for the defense.

Arizona State	0	7	14	13	34
Rutgers	10	0	0	8	18

Arizona State and Rutgers collided in the inaugural Garden State Bowl, with the Sun Devils taking a 34-18 win. The Sun Devils came from behind to score the victory after trailing 10-0 late in the second quarter. Arizona State got on the scoreboard with Mark Malone's 26-yard pass to Robert Weathers to put ASU down by three at the half. In the second half Malone and the rest of the Sun Devils put it all together to score 21 straight points to take command of the game. Malone, who finished the game 13 of 31 for 268 yards, assisted in all five of the Sun Devil touchdowns as he threw for three TDs and rushed for the other two. In the third quarter, Malone passed to John Mistler for a 26-yard TD and then followed up with a 53-yard bomb to Chris DeFrance. In the fourth quarter Malone took it in himself on a one-yard run, and then scored on a four-yard run for his second TD of the afternoon. Sun Devil receiver John Mistler was named MVP for his efforts in catching seven passes for 148 yards.

Arizona State failed in its attempt for a sixth straight bowl victory, falling to a powerful Nittany Lion squad by a 42-30 margin. Probably the biggest reason for the Devil demise was the 14 first quarter points ASU surrendered. But the Sun Devils came battling back from the deficit, scoring a pair of second quarter TDs on a pair of Dennis Sproul aeriels. Although A-State came back to only a 17-14 deficit at the half, the third quarter and the early going in the final frame was all Penn State. Down 31-14, the Devils never quit, giving the Fiesta Bowl record crowd and the national CBS television audience an exciting contest to the finish. Sproul hit Ron Washington to bring ASU to the short side of 31-21, and after a Matt Bahr field goal, ASU scored to pull within six at 34-28. But the Lions closed the door on a TD in the final minutes by Matt Suhey, while ASU scored its final points on a safety.

Arizona State	3	3	0	11	17
Nebraska	0	7	7	0	14

In one of the biggest wins in Arizona State football history, the Sun Devils outlasted co-Big 8 champ Nebraska to finish the season 12-0 and go on to finish second in both wire service final grid polls. Trailing 14-6 entering the final quarter, the Sun Devils scored an early fourth period TD on a 10-yard Fred Mortensen to John Jefferson pass. Mortensen then tossed to Larry Mucker for a two-point conversion to tie the game at 14. Late in the fourth quarter, ASU's Danny Kush booted a 29-yard field goal – his third of the day – to give the Devils a 17-14 lead. Nebraska began driving for a possible winning score in the waning moments of the game, but a Cornhusker fumble sealed the game for ASU. "From the players' standpoint, this was probably the most important game since I have been here," said Frank Kush. "Not only was the game important for the recognition this team will receive, but it also helps gain recognition for the great teams and players we have had here in the past."

Arizona State	7	0	3	18	28
Pittsburgh	7	0	0	0	7

Pitt scored a touchdown in the first minute of play, but only Arizona State scored during the remainder of the game as ASU won its third consecutive Fiesta Bowl. Danny White fumbled on the first snap of the game with Pitt recovering at the ASU 12. Tony Dorsett gained nine yards and then three for the touchdown to put the Panthers ahead. But ASU drove 73 yards in its next possession, with White's 51-yard pass to Greg Hudson setting up Woody Green's three-yard touchdown run. Danny Kusch's 30-yard field goal with 1:29 remaining in the third quarter snapped a 7-7 deadlock. The Devils put the game away in the final period. White's 38-yard pass to Hudson completed an 80-yard scoring drive. Green ran 23 yards for a TD on the first play, following a partially blocked Pitt punt, and White's 50-yard pass to Owens set up a one-yard touchdown by Green. Green gained 131 yards on 25 carries, while Dorsett netted 100 yards on 30 carries.

1971 FIESTA BOWL

Arizona State 45, Florida State 38

December 27 • Tempe, Ariz.
Sun Devil Stadium • Attendance: 51,809

Arizona State	7	14	10	14	45
Florida State	10	18	0	10	38

The Sun Devils and Florida State's Seminoles combined to give the Fiesta Bowl the most spectacular opening game in collegiate bowl history. A contest of continual offensive one-upmanship, the two teams combined for 83 points – the most in modern bowl game history. Gary Huff's 25 of 46 for 347 yards with two TDs earned him the MVP award, but Huff came up short in leading the Seminoles to victory over Arizona State. Leading the way for the Sun Devils was quarterback Danny White (15 of 30 for 250 yards and two TDs). Woody Green (24 carries for 101 yards and three touchdowns) and Don Ekstrand (5 PATs and one 34-yard field goal). The Sun Devils scored on a 1-yard run by Green with only 34 seconds left in the contest for their final margin of victory.

1970 PEACH BOWL

Arizona State 48, North Carolina 26

December 30 • Atlanta, Ga.
Grant Field • Attendance: 52,126

Arizona State	7	14	20	7	48
North Carolina	0	26	0	0	26

The Sun Devils conquered a fine UNC team and a raging Atlanta blizzard to begin their march into the national collegiate grid limelight in the '70 Peach Bowl. It was the Sun Devil trademark of blazing speed that earned the victory for ASU, as J.D. Hill, Monroe Eley, Bob Thomas and Joe Spagnola led the way for Arizona State. The Sun Devils broke out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter. Carolina answered with 26 second quarter points to take a 26-21 halftime lead. The Devils offense continued to operate at peak efficiency in the second half, despite the raging snow storm that slowed the track. Also raging in the second half was the A-State defense, which held UNC all-America running back Don McCauley and the Tar Heels scoreless. "This game is going to mean a lot to us in the future," said Frank Kush, following the Sun Devil triumph. "I think that we've proven now that we can go on a football field with anyone in the nation."

1951 SALAD BOWL

Miami Ohio 34, Arizona State 21

January 1 • Phoenix, Ariz.
Montgomery Stadium • Attendance: 23,000

Miami (Ohio)	7	14	6	7	34
Arizona State	0	7	7	7	21

Eddie Doherty took his team to the Salad Bowl for the second straight year, this time to face Woody Hayes' Miami Redskins. Miami roared out to 21-0 lead before Wilford White scored on a pass from Manuel Aja. The teams traded touchdowns after that. Passer Nobby Wirkowski and runner Jim (Boxcar) Bailey were Miami's offensive stars.

SCORING SUMMARY

MU – Pont 1 run (Stauffer kick)
MU – Bailey 1 run (Stauffer kick)
ASC – White 27 pass from Aja (Fuller kick)
ASC – Wahlin 4 run (Fuller kick)

1941 SUN BOWL

Case Western Reserve 26, Arizona State 13

January 1 • El Paso, Texas
The Sun Bowl • Attendance: 12,000

Western Reserve	7	0	6	13	26
Arizona State	0	13	0	0	13

Western Reserve came from behind in the second half to defeat coach Dixie Howell's Arizona State Bulldogs. The Cleveland, Ohio, eleven scored first on Steve Belichick's short plunge, but Arizona State nearly pulled even in the second quarter on a 10-yard scoring pass from Joe Hernandez to Wayne Pitts that made the score Western Reserve 7, ASTC 6. Shortly thereafter, Hascall Henshaw put the Bulldogs ahead with a spectacular 94-yard scoring dash. But it was all Western Reserve in the second half, as Willis Waggle, Richard Booth and Joe Reis scored on short runs.

SCORING SUMMARY

WR – Belichick 1 run (Belichick kick)
ASTC – Pitts 10 pass from Hernandez (kick failed)
ASTC – Henshaw 94 run (Hernandez kick)
WR – Waggle 10 return of blocked kick (kick failed)

1940 SUN BOWL

Arizona State 0, Catholic University 0

January 1 • El Paso, Texas
The Sun Bowl • Attendance: 13,000

Arizona State's Bulldogs met Catholic University of Washington, D.C., in the Bulldogs' first-ever postseason bowl appearance, the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. Coach Dixie Howell's 1939 team had been a defensive wonder, and it continued the tradition in the Sun Bowl, blanking the strong Cardinals and limiting them to only four first downs, Wayne (Ripper) Pitts and Bill (Dub) Davis were backfield standouts and center Ray Green was an anchor of the ASTC line. The Dogs rolled up a big statistical advantage, but were stopped on four fumble losses and several pass interceptions in the scoreless game.

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Arizona State University has developed a new model for the American research university, creating an institution committed to excellence, access and impact – the New American University. ASU's charter, adopted in 2014, is the blueprint of that transformation:

"ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom it excludes, but by whom it includes and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves."

These pillars, combined with ASU's scope and scale, allow for the creation of world-class teaching, learning and discovery environments. International publications consistently place ASU in the top tier of universities worldwide. U.S. rankings praise ASU as one of the finest, most innovative universities in the nation, yet still name it one of the best values in American higher education.

ASU ranks in the top 10 nationally for prestigious awards to undergraduates, including Fulbright, Truman and Marshall grants. Its faculty includes winners of the Nobel and Pulitzer prizes; more than 425 scholars who have achieved the highest levels of accomplishment and recognition in their fields; and more than 70 instructors in their early careers who have been recognized as those who will lead the advancement of scholarship in their areas of expertise.

As a result of the university's many student success initiatives, ASU's four-year graduation has increased, and a commitment to inclusion has resulted in a 50-percent jump in student enrollment in the past decade. ASU graduates, according to the 2014 Gallup-Purdue Index, are more fully employed, more actively engaged and deeply interested in their work than alumni at other universities, and are more likely to thrive in all areas of well-being.

ASU A NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RANKINGS LEADER

- Top world university: ASU ranks No. 88 in the world by the Academic Ranking of World Universities and No. 48 among all universities in the U.S.
- International favorite: The Institute of International Education ranks ASU No. 8 in the nation among colleges and universities chosen by international students. ASU boasts the third-highest international enrollment in the Pac-12.
- Leading innovator: U.S. News & World Report ranks ASU No. 2 on its list of schools making the most promising and innovative changes in academics, faculty and student life.
- Undergraduate excellence: The Princeton Review ranks ASU one of the country's top universities for undergraduate education, putting ASU in the top 15 percent of all four-year colleges in America.
- Graduate excellence: U.S. News & World Report ranks ASU's graduate programs among the best in the nation. ASU is listed among the nation's best schools for law, education, business, public affairs, fine arts and others.
- "Best-buy" public college: The Fiske Guide to Colleges names ASU one of the "best-buy" public colleges in the U.S., Canada and United Kingdom for the most cost-conscious combination of academics and affordability. ASU is the only university in Arizona and the Pac-12 on the list.
- Among best-qualified graduates: A survey by The Wall Street Journal ranks ASU No. 5 on a list of top universities favored by employers for producing the best-qualified graduates.
- Producer of Fulbright Student scholars: ASU is a top producer of U.S. Fulbright Student grant recipients who will teach and study abroad. At 26 percent, ASU is No. 6 in the nation for percentage of Fulbright student applicants awarded grants.
- Outstanding public university: American City Business Journals names ASU a top-100 public university in the U.S., based on retention and graduate rate, affordable tuition and housing costs, diverse faculty and student body, prestigious reputation, and selective admission process.
- Top-10 online curriculum: U.S. News & World Report lists ASU No. 8 overall for undergraduate online programs. Five online graduate degree programs also rank highly, including criminal justice, business, engineering, education and nursing.
- Innovative and entrepreneurial: Changemaker Central, a student-led initiative at ASU, earned an Ashoka U-Cordes Innovation Award for its high-impact approach to positive change and innovation in social entrepreneurship.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT MICHAEL CROW

Michael M. Crow became the 16th president of Arizona State University on July 1, 2002.

Recognized as an innovator in higher education, Crow is guiding the transformation of ASU into one of the nation's leading public metropolitan research universities, an institution that combines the highest levels of academic excellence, inclusiveness to a broad demographic and maximum societal impact — a model called the “New American University.” Under his leadership, ASU has established major interdisciplinary research initiatives and witnessed an unprecedented expansion of academic infrastructure, a nearly four-fold increase in research expenditures and attainment of record levels of diversity in the student body.

A recipient of the 2013 Carnegie Corp. American Leadership Award for his commitment to excellence and access, curricular innovation and the promotion of strong links between the university and its communities, Crow has directed the establishment at ASU of more than a dozen new transdisciplinary schools and large-scale research initiatives while also launching important initiatives in the humanities and social sciences. During his tenure, the university has tripled research expenditures and completed an unprecedented infrastructure expansion.

Prior to coming to ASU, Crow served as executive vice provost of Columbia University, where he also was professor of science and technology policy in the School of International and Public Affairs. As chief strategist of Columbia's research enterprise, he led technology and innovation transfer operations, establishing Columbia Innovation Enterprises (renamed Science and Technology Ventures), as well as advancing interdisciplinary program development. He played the lead role in the creation of and served as the founding director of the Earth Institute at Columbia University. In 1998, he founded the Center for Science, Policy and Outcomes, dedicated to linking science and technology to optimal social, economic and environmental outcomes. In 2003, CSPO was reconstituted at ASU and is now based in both Phoenix and Washington, D.C.

Crow is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the National Academy of Public Administration, and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and U.S. Department of Commerce National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship. He is the coauthor of “Designing the New American University,” published by Johns Hopkins University Press in February 2015, and author or coauthor of books and articles analyzing knowledge enterprises, science and technology policy, and the design of higher education institutions and systems.

Crow received his Ph.D. in public administration (science and technology policy) from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University. Born in 1955 in San Diego, California, Crow is the son of a U.S. Navy sailor. The father of three children — Ryan, Britt and Alana — he and his wife, Dr. Sybil Francis, reside in Paradise Valley, Arizona.

SUN DEVIL ATHLETICS

RAY ANDERSON

Ray Anderson was named Arizona State University's Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director on Jan. 9, 2014.

In 2014-15, his first full year at ASU, Anderson's accomplishments include: $32 million donation to turn men's hockey into a varsity sport and add two women's sports (triathlon and likely lacrosse); hiring Hall of Famer Bob Bowman (Michael Phelps' coach) to take over swimming as well as Bobby Hurley (men's basketball) and Tracy Smith (baseball).

He has overseen the ongoing reconstruction of a football stadium and transformation of a former spring-training stadium into ASU baseball's new home at Phoenix Municipal Stadium while developing an athletic facilities district to pay for capital projects.

Additionally, Anderson has helped to drive fundraising to school-record heights including a personal contribution of $500,000 toward the Sun Devil Stadium project. He also negotiated an eight-year athletic apparel contract with Adidas that doubles what ASU was receiving from Nike.

He was recognized during the week of Super Bowl XLIX by the National Football League for his outstanding leadership with a desire to improving his community as he was presented with both the 2015 Paul J. Tagliabue Award and the John Wooten Lifetime Achievement Award, two of the NFL's most prestigious honors.

Anderson joined the Sun Devil Family after serving as the executive vice president of football operations for the National Football League (NFL) since August 2006.

He served as the executive vice president and chief administrative officer of the Atlanta Falcons for four years, and began his professional career as an attorney at Kilpatrick & Cody in Atlanta, Georgia, where he worked primarily in labor law litigation.

A Los Angeles, California native, Anderson earned a BA in political science from Stanford in 1976 and a juris doctorate degree from Harvard Law School in 1979. He was an all-league high school quarterback and shortstop, and a three-year football letterman and two-year baseball letterman at Stanford.

Anderson co-founded the sports law practice at Heller, Ehrman, a prominent San Francisco firm, in 1980 and entered the sports agency business in 1984 when he opened the West Coast office for Sports Advisors Group. In 1987, he launched his own agency, AR Sports, specializing in the representation of NFL coaches and players and later adding Major League Baseball players. Anderson merged his agency with Octagon in 2001.

As an indication of the high regard in which Anderson is held, he was appointed to the NFL Committee on Workplace Diversity and was named to Sports Illustrated's list of the "101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports." He was also named to the prestigious "100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc.," a group dedicated to providing support and improving the quality of life for African-Americans, and to the Board of Governors of the Georgia World Congress Center Authority.

In April 2014 it was announced that Anderson would be a professor of practice in ASU's new sports law and business program, a collaboration of the highly ranked Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and W. P. Carey School of Business.

He and his wife, Buffie, have one son, Bryant, and one daughter, Kimberly.

SUN DEVIL STADIUM

One of the most aesthetic and beautiful collegiate stadiums in the nation, Arizona State's Sun Devil Stadium has played host to some of the best football games for more than five decades.

It has hosted Arizona State University football games since 1958, including the game on Sept. 21, 1996, when the playing surface was named Frank Kush Field as ASU upset top-ranked Nebraska 19-0. It has hosted four national championships – Notre Dame vs. West Virginia in 1988, Nebraska vs. Florida in 1996, Tennessee vs. Florida State in 1999 and Ohio State vs. Miami in 2003. And it played host to the NFL's ultimate showcase – the 1996 Super Bowl where the Dallas Cowboys pulled out a close win over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In 2014, Arizona State announced the Sun Devil Stadium Momentum Campaign. The university committed to invest $256 million to rebuild the aging stadium. The public campaign's purpose is to raise $85 million in private donations to complete a full renovation that includes upgraded amenities to enhance the fan experience. The campaign will not use taxpayer dollars towards this renovation, since it will be self-funded through private donations and new revenue streams.

Phase 1 of the project began in 2015. Hunt Construction and Sundt Construction are the lead construction management partners in the project, working with the university's capital programs management team. The majority of the work in Phase 1 will occur in the south end zone, where steel bleachers will be replaced with permanent concrete stadium bowl seating to create a new student section. Demolition will also occur in the northeast end with the removal of additional upper deck seating. Work will continue until the 2015 football season begins in September.

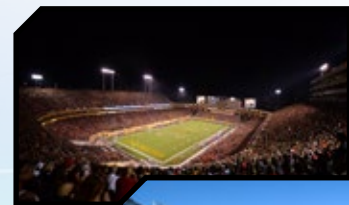

The stadium, a favorite of television production crews, was the home of the Tostito's Fiesta Bowl for 35 years and the NFL's Arizona Cardinals for 18 seasons. From 2006 to 2011, Sun Devil Stadium was the venue for the Insight Bowl and has since hosted the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl and the Cactus Bowl.

The facility, regarded as one of the nation's outstanding collegiate football facilities, also boasts a spectacular, second-to-none setting. Constructed between two mountain buttes, the stadium literally was carved from the desert, and occupies a space between the Tempe buttes – actually small mountains that ideally have accommodated the growth of the structure. Sun Devil Stadium addresses Phoenix to the west and the south end zone (formerly the open end) points to scenic Tempe, home of Arizona State University.

Originally erected in 1958 (capacity 30,000), the stadium has been expanded three times (1976-78, 1988, and 1992) with additions. Sun Devil Stadium will boast a capacity of 64,248 at the beginning of the 2015 season.

In 1987, the stadium was filled beyond capacity for the Papal visit, one of the few sites to play host to the Pope's tour of the United States. On April 4, 1976, the New York Cosmos (with Pelé) and the Los Angeles Aztecs played an exhibition soccer game in front of 15,000 fans in the stadium. In 2008, the New England Patriots used the stadium as their practice facility in preparation for Super Bowl XLIII. And in May 2009, President Barack Obama spoke at ASU's commencement ceremonies in front of a crowd of more than 70,000 people, the largest U.S. audience for Obama since his inauguration.

The field facelift, along with the 165,000-square-foot Carson Student Athlete Center and the three-story, 60,000-square-foot press box and skybox additions, makes Arizona State's Sun Devil Stadium one of the true showcases of college football.

The press box and skybox facility, which sits atop the upper deck on the west side, contains two 30-suite levels of skyboxes renovated in 1999 and is topped by an ultra-modern press box and eight additional private suites. The facility also boasts its own television production room, complete with editing and chyron capabilities and camera equipment. The equipment is manned by a full crew on game day to give spectators live and replay views of the contest.

Served by four industrial-sized elevators – one for the media and three for the public – the facility has working space for more than 200 sportswriters, booth space for broadcasters, statistical crews, scoreboard operations and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for more than 900 fans.

The bowl (south) end is connected by the dramatic Sun Devil Athletics Complex and the extension of the loge-level seats. Locker rooms also were added in the north end visiting teams. Two new scoreboards were put in place in 1999. The color video replay system, situated in the southeast corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. The original video screen was the first of its kind in an on-campus football stadium. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southwest corner.

Located in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium, the $28 million, 165,000-square-foot Carson Student Athlete Center houses all of ASU's 21 varsity sport coaches, as well as athletic administration.

With the completion of the complex in 1988 and the additions in 2002, the athletic department was centralized in one facility for the first time. The goal was to have the entire department together to improve communication and operations between coaches and administrators.

MOMENTUM CAMPAIGN

In January 2014, Arizona State University kicked off a public fundraising drive – the Sun Devil Stadium Momentum Campaign – in conjunction with its plan to rebuild iconic Sun Devil Stadium.

The proposed plan will completely renovate Sun Devil Stadium, while preserving Tillman Tunnel and retaining the stadium in its iconic setting between the Tempe/Hayden Buttes. Construction on the stadium began in 2015, with the football team competing in Sun Devil Stadium throughout the renovation. Arizona State University is working with design professionals who will bring the vision into sharper focus in the forms of locally-based Gould Evans and national stadium design experts HNTB Corporation.

The fundraising campaign will be conducted in phases – mirroring the three-year phased reinvention of Sun Devil Stadium. Changes began this spring when approximately 5,700 seats were removed from the north end zone as a preliminary step. Work on the project will be conducted in the off-seasons while the Sun Devil football team continues to play its regular seasons in the stadium, with construction being completed in 2017.

Following historic contributions from Athletics Director Ray Anderson and head football coach Todd Graham totaling $1 million, Arizona State University filed an amended capital development plan with the Arizona Board of Regents that increases its reinvestment and expands the stadium project to include a new Student Athletic Facility in September 2014.

The Student Athletic Facility is a new addition to the project. Located at the north end of the stadium, the approximately 84,500-square-foot facility will be integrated into the existing stadium structure, and will include office and administrative spaces, meeting rooms, support space, study rooms, storage and equipment space, locker rooms, lounge areas, athletic training areas, and conference areas.

Other areas that will be improved, updated, or replaced in Sun Devil Stadium during its three-year phased reinvention include reconstruction of concourse levels, restroom facilities, concessions, electrical and plumbing upgrades, new club and premium seating, improvements in the lower bowl, modifications to the upper deck, and a new videoboard and sound system.

PHASES

- PHASE 1 was completed prior to the start of football in 2015, including the removal of a majority of the existing loge structure in the southwest and southeast corners of the stadium as well as the demolition to the upper deck of the northeast end zone. The area cleared by the removal will be redeveloped in a configuration that is dedicated to students for seating and standing, enhanced concessions, food service, restrooms and dedicated student entrances to the stadium.
- PHASE 2 work will be conducted on the east and north sides of the stadium in 2016, upon conclusion of the 2015 football season.
- PHASE 3 work will begin in January of 2017 with work on the west side of the stadium and on the Student Athletics Facility, completing in time for the 2017 football season.

WHAT'S COMING

- New student section that will be entirely in the lower bowl in the south end zone, along with student section in the north end zone in what will be called a Double Inferno, unlike any other student sections in the Pac-12.
- Enhanced seating and legroom
- More restrooms and concession options
- Technological upgrades
- Improved air and traffic flow through the venue
- A connection to the surrounding landscape
- Additional premium seating options
- A new video board and sound system, among other new amenities.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Hundreds of athletes stream in and out of the Carson Student-Athlete Center and its various departments every day. Each has separate goals that are specific to their respective sports. Their personal differences mirror the variances in the sports they play.

CLICK FOR VIDEO

But there is a place underneath the six-story building that has been constructed within its very foundation. In this place, all of Arizona State's athletes are on the same team.

It's the Lawrence Strength and Conditioning Center, the home of the Iron Devils. Its black walls are accented with iron and steel and Sun Devil gold, and its overseer is decorated Sports Performance coach Shawn Griswold. Griswold, who was brought to Arizona State by football coach Todd Graham, is lauded by Graham as "the best strength and conditioning coach in America" and is responsible for record-setting physicality, speed, and injury prevention within Sun Devil Athletics over the past several years.

The football team's strength and conditioning regimen especially focuses on "the five-year plan" that prepares players for championships and then mirrors NFL combine exercises all throughout their time at ASU to ready every single student-athlete for what they'll see at the next level. And at the core of each workout are exercises to prevent injury and strengthen valuable tissues.

ASU's goal is to "create a fifth quarter" in games as the team works toward a conditioning advantage that will give its players an advantage late in games when many teams are tiring and breaking down. The fruition of the plan Griswold has in place can be noted in the fact that ASU did not lose a single starter to a season-ending injury last season.

Each athlete has a sport-specific workout program monitored by Griswold and his associates. The athletes trickle down to the weight room either individually or with their respective sports on a daily basis, all the while preparing themselves for the physical and mental strain they'll face in that black-and-gold room. From divers and offensive linemen to sprinters and point guards, every Sun Devil sweats together as one unified team, and at that team's core is solid iron.

Breaking The Rock

On game day, the players carry The Hammer off the bus, through the Devil Walk and into the locker room before battle. When game time arrives, a chosen player will wield the hammer and lead the team out of Tillman Tunnel. The team also takes it on the road. It has become a symbol of Sun Devil Strength. The hammer breaks rocks when the Devils emerge victorious on game days. Specifically, it crushes a designated rock for each opponent. The goal each year is to break 15 rocks, a symbol of perfection. It's one of the latest ideas to have materialized in the new culture that Coach Todd Graham has created at ASU.

PAT TILLMAN

Pat Tillman started his college career as a linebacker for Arizona State University in 1994, when he secured the last remaining scholarship for the team. Tillman excelled as a linebacker at Arizona State, despite being relatively small for the position at five-feet eleven-inches (1.80 m) tall. As a junior, he helped his team go undefeated that season as well as helping them make it to the Rose Bowl that year. In 1997, he was voted the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year. Academically, Tillman majored in marketing and graduated in three and a half years with a 3.85 GPA. He also earned many academic awards including: the Clyde B. Smith Academic Award in 1996 and 1997; the Sporting News Honda Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 1997; and the 1998 Sun Angel Student Athlete of Year. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2010.

In the 1998 National Football League Draft, Tillman was selected as the 226th pick by the Arizona Cardinals. Tillman moved over to play the safety position in the NFL and started ten of sixteen games in his rookie season. He went on to become an NFL All-Pro selection in 2000 and once turned down a five-year, $9 million contract offer from the St. Louis Rams out of loyalty to the Cardinals.

In 2002, Pat Tillman proudly put his NFL career with the Arizona Cardinals on hold to serve his country. This decision was just one of many he made over the course of his lifetime to help others and serve a cause greater than his own self-interest.

Pat joined the U.S. Army in 2002, committing to a three-year term. He was assigned to the second battalion of the 75th Ranger Regiment in Fort Lewis, Washington. They served tours in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003, and in Afghanistan during Operation Enduring Freedom in 2004. On the evening of April 22, 2004, Pat's unit was ambushed as it traveled through the rugged, canyon terrain of eastern Afghanistan. His heroic efforts to provide cover for fellow soldiers as they escaped from the canyon led to his untimely and tragic death via fratricide.

AFTER EXCELLING AT THE LINEBACKER POSITION FOR ASU, HE WAS THE 226TH PICK BY THE ARIZONA CARDINALS IN THE 1998 NFL DRAFT. IN 2002, HE PUT HIS NFL CAREER ON HOLD TO SERVE HIS COUNTRY. THE PAT TILLMAN FOUNDATION WAS CREATED FOLLOWING HIS DEATH IN 2004.

TILLMAN FOUNDATION

Following Pat's death in 2004, while serving with the U.S. Army's 75th Ranger Regiment in Afghanistan, his family and friends established the Pat Tillman Foundation.

Upon inception, the Foundation pledged $1.25 million to Arizona State University, Pat's alma mater, to create and endow the Tillman Scholars-ASU Leadership

Through Action™ program at the W. P. Carey School of Business. The program celebrates Pat's legacy and his extraordinary accomplishments and leadership as a student-athlete at ASU both on and off the field.

In 2008, understanding the challenges experienced by military families and the increased need for educational resources, the board of directors led by Marie Tillman, refocused its mission: to invest in military veterans and their spouses through educational scholarships; building a diverse community of leaders committed to service to others. To date, 347 Tillman Military Scholars attending 98 academic institutions nationwide have been awarded over $6 million in scholarship support.

PAT'S RUN

Sponsored by the Pat Tillman Foundation, Pat's Run was created to honor the life and legacy of ASU alumnus Pat Tillman who lost his life while serving with the 75th Ranger Regiment in Afghanistan. While a member of the ASU football team, Tillman proudly wore the number 42 football jersey.

The 4.2 mile run and .42 kids run attract more than 30,000 people each year. Proceeds directly benefit the Tillman Military Scholars, a program designed to support educational opportunities for service members and military families by bridging the financial gaps left by the Post-9/11 GI Bill®.

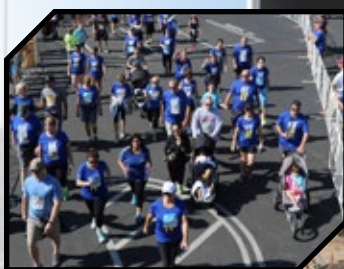

The 4.2 mile course winds through the streets of Tempe and is staged so that all participants finish on the 42-yard line on Frank Kush Field inside Sun Devil Stadium.

In addition to the main run, chapters from the ASU Alumni Association participate in shadow runs across the United States. The shadow runs are community-oriented, casual affairs, commonly held at parks, schools and recreation areas.

TILLMAN TUNNEL

Before each home game, players enter Sun Devil Stadium through the Tillman Tunnel. But the tunnel is complete with inspirational signage, a PT-42 "The Heart of a Champion" logo and a photo veil of Tillman the players will run through to take the field. As players wait to take the field, there is also a television in the tunnel that will show highlights of Tillman's time at ASU.

MILITARY OVERVIEW

CLICK FOR VIDEO

- ASU has a rich history of service to our country with over 7,500 living degreed alumni with a military affiliation.
- Similarly the ASU Alumni Association also has over 1,300 non-degree members with a military affiliation.

SUN DEVIL FOOTBALL MILITARY HISTORY

- Arizona State's proud history of military service by football players dates back to the initial years of the program's existence, starting in 1898 with three players that were members of the 1st United States Volunteer Cavalry in the Spanish-American War, otherwise known as Theodore Roosevelt's "Rough Riders".
- ASU has records of over 70 football alumni who have served their country throughout history.
- Approximately three dozen known Arizona State football players fought in World War II including: Sidney Anderson, Ted Anderson, Bob Baccus, Art Bunger, Bob Buntz, Dom Campolo, Francis Clevenger, Anson Cooper, Claude Duvall, Joe Garcia, Harold Herty, Albert Huber, William Hudgens, Glenn Johnson, Max Julian, Heber Kleinman, Frank Komadina, Robert Lackey, Tom Lillico, J.B McDonald, Jim Montgomery, Ira O'Neal, Wendell Patterson, Ralph Peckovich, Dom "Rocky" Pellicino, Jr., Clayton Peterson, Rex Phelps, Noble Riggs, Henry Rockwell, Barney Rouse, Bill Saunders, Czeslo Schmidt, Clyde L. Smith, Williard Smith and Morrison Warren.

OTHER NOTABLE SUN DEVILS IN THE MILITARY

- Initially drafted into the 1st Army Corps in 1942, Ira O'Neal served in the 42nd Aviation Squadron as a first lieutenant and was a pioneering member of the «Tuskegee Airmen» squadron, the first African-American military aviators in the history of the United States Armed Forces.
- Lieutenant General John F. Goodman was the Sun Devil's starting quarterback in 1965 and 1966, and earned his B.S. from ASU. He was the Commanding General of the U.S. Marine Corps Forces Pacific Fleet and is one of the most decorated military commanders in U.S history.
- Jake Sheffield, a defensive tackle on the 2012 team, spent approximately 18 months serving two tours of duty in Iraq with the United States Marine Corps.

AT A UNIVERSITY LEVEL

- The Department of Military Science at Arizona State University was founded in 1935 and is located on the Tempe campus. It includes the Arizona State University Army Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC), the ASU Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC), and the ASU Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corp (AFROTC). All three are committed to upholding the values of the United States Armed Services and dedicated to a lifetime of selfless service to the Nation.
- The enrollment in the ASU ROTC programs has expanded to over 500 cadets in recent years.
- Although the Ira A. Fulton Schools of Engineering enrolls the most veterans and service members, followed by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the College of Public Service and Community Solutions has the highest percentage of veterans, topping 9.5 percent. ASU is also working to advance civilian-military collaborations through the new Public Service Academy, promoting public service while developing cross-sector leadership skills.
- ASU was recently ranked among the top schools in the nation for Best Online Programs for Veterans by U.S. News. The university has also been named a Military Friendly School by G.I. Jobs magazine each year from 2010 to 2015.

TOP PICKS

Arizona State football student-athletes have enjoyed tremendous success in the first round of the annual NFL draft. In 2015, defensive back Damarious Randall became the 26th Sun Devil to be taken in the first round of the AFL or NFL draft. Arizona State was one of just three schools in the nation to have a first-round draft pick in 2000-03 (Miami and Florida). ASU's 24 first-round picks in the NFL draft are the fourth-most among all Pac-12 teams, behind only USC (75), UCLA (27) and Cal (26). Here is a complete listing of Arizona State's first round draft selections in the order by which they were picked:

CAMP TONTOZONA

CLICK FOR VIDEO

Since 1960, under the reign of ASU's legendary Frank Kush, the Sun Devil football team has made an annual journey nearly 100 miles northeast of the locker room to Camp Tontozona, a camping and recreational area near Payson, Ariz., owned by Arizona State University.

From the year 1960 to 2008, each and every football team had the opportunity to make the trip for annual football camp. Camp T, as it is known, serves a much higher purpose for the football team than escaping the heat of central Arizona; it allows the players, coaches, and staff to bond with one another, and eat, sleep, and breathe football. Kush began the camp with the entire team climbing a mountain and singing the fight song at the summit. Kush's ultimate vision was that the camp would allow the players to create an unbreakable "togetherness".

In 2012, under the direction of Coach Graham and the Sun Devil Athletics Administration, ASU made the "Return to Camp T" campaign successful that resulted in ASU's first trip to the property in the Tonto National Forest since 2008. The White Mountain Alumni Chapter Board, volunteers and sponsors took the lead and helped to make the return a reality with a matching donation program. This will mark the fourth straight trip to the legendary property under Coach Graham's leadership.

"I've stated many times that I love the traditions of college football," coach Todd Graham said in a statement. "Camp Tontozona for ASU is one of those iconic traditions. I want to take my teams to Camp T because that is where the tradition and the season begins. Coach Frank Kush had a vision and it worked out very well. I want to perpetuate that tradition."

Set within the cool mountain country near Payson, Ariz., the camp borders the Tonto National Forest, which provides the first two syllables of Tontozona. The state of Arizona offers the last pair.

Mountains skirt the camp with water, contributing much of the beauty to the area with clear-running Tonto Creek just a moment's walk from the practice field. As a matter of fact, the bubbling springs on the camp property are a popular place for a cold drink or a refreshing natural whirlpool after practice. But the creek is even more popular after drills.

Three man-sized waterfalls and clear-bottom swimming holes serve as refreshers to the Sun Devils. Wildlife is another prominent specialty of Tontozona; deer roaming the surrounding country and hawks circling the morning and evening skies are not uncommon sights.

Just minutes away by car are other attractions such as the spectacular Mogollon Rim and its breathtaking view and countryside that provide a haven for campers, horseback riders, hikers and picnickers.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

2013-14 Student Attendance at Sun Devil Men's Basketball

- Every major student attendance record was set this year. This is the third year in a row in which every major student attendance record has been set.
- Average Student Attendance: 928.28
 - Up 12.48% from our record of 825.29 from last year.
 - 5th straight year that average student game attendance has increased.
- Largest Student Attendance Single Game: 3,023
 - Previous record was 1,529 set last year.
 - 3rd straight year in which the single game record has been set.
- Total Season Student Attendance: 16,709
 - This breaks the record of 14,030 set last year.
 - 5th straight year that total season student attendance has increased.
- Had best student attendance ever for a UA game at 2,034 on 2/7/15.
- Had the 1st, 2nd, and 5th largest student crowds in school history in 2014-15.

942 CREW HIGHLIGHTS

- The top 10 largest student crowds on record have occurred in the last 3 basketball seasons.
- 50 members of the 942 Crew went on the student trip to Las Vegas for the Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament. Another 10 joined the group up there, making ASU's student section in the MGM Garden Arena the largest of the opening round games.
- The 942 Crew painted and cleaned up a Las Vegas homeless shelter while at the Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament.
- The Curtain of Distraction continued to be effective in its second year. In 2014-15, opposing teams shot 121 on 197 free throw attempts (61.4%, 76 FT missed, 4.22 misses per game) when shooting towards the student section.
- Used the Curtain of Distraction at selected women's basketball games. Teams shot 25-of-30 on free throws in the first half with the Curtain of Distraction and 25-of-39 FT (64.1%) against the Curtain of Distraction.
- The 942 Crew and the Curtain of Distraction received national and international exposure, including the front page of the New York Times. Harvard Sports Analysis Collective determined it was worth 1.41 points per game and the New York Times determined that Wells Fargo Arena was the hardest place in the college basketball for opposing teams to make free throws since the inception of the Curtain of Distraction.

MARCHING BAND

The history of the ASU Sun Devil Marching Band is a proud one. Since being founded on September 20, 1915 by Lillian Williams, the then-Tempe Bulldogs Marching Band has grown into today's ensemble of nearly 400 members that consists of percussion, woodwind, brass, front ensemble, color guard and spirit squad members.

The ASU Sun Devil Marching Band is known as "The Pride of the Southwest," and with good reason. In 1991, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, an award given to one band each year in recognition of elevated musical standards, innovative marching routines, and a high level of national respect. The ASU Sun Devil Marching Band is the first Pac-10 school to be distinguished with this award, and high standards continue to be the norm today.

In addition to a number of bowl appearances, other past credits include: a performance in the pregame show at Super Bowl XLII in Glendale, Arizona; performances at Cardinals NFL and Phoenix Suns NBA games; and performances at Sea World, Knott's Berry Farm, Disneyland and Universal Studios. The ASU Sun Devil Marching Band has also had special guest appearances with the Boston Brass Quintet, Tower of Power and Little Richard.

SPIRIT SQUAD

The ASU Spirit Squad, which includes the Sun Devil Dance Team and Spirit Leaders, is part of the ASU Sun Devil Marching Band. It is a prestigious organization created to promote school spirit and interest in college activities, and perform and support athletic programs. Members have the opportunity to sharpen dance technique, develop positive personal character, and provide quality, family entertainment for large audiences.

SPARKY

Sparky the Sun Devil is the official mascot of Arizona State University. Originally the ASU athletic teams' mascot was an owl, then became a "Normal" (named for the Tempe Normal School), then was later changed to a bulldog. The State Press, the student newspaper, ran frequent appeals during the fall of 1946, urging the Bulldog to be replaced by the new Sun Devil. On November 8, 1946, the student body voted 819 to 196 to make the change. On November 20, as reported by the Arizona Republic, the student council made it official. The following day, the first Arizona State team played as the Sun Devils. Two years later, alumnus and Disney illustrator Bert Anthony designed "Sparky", a devil holding a trident (colloquially referred to as a pitchfork).

Arizona State announced they were joining forces with the Walt Disney Company to redesign the mascot costume in 2013 as part of an effort to modernize the character, and planned to use the character in comic books, children books and animated features. The school also announced that they planned to continue using the iconic mark in various ways, including marketing and selling apparel alongside the new version of the character. The new Sparky can be seen roaming the sidelines at the majority of Sun Devil events.

VICTORY BELL

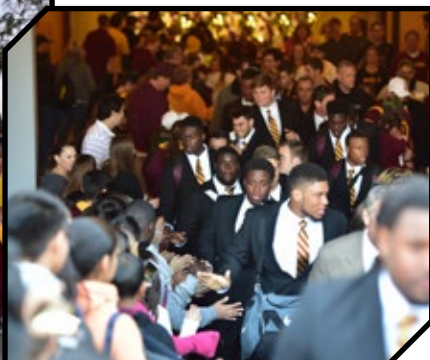

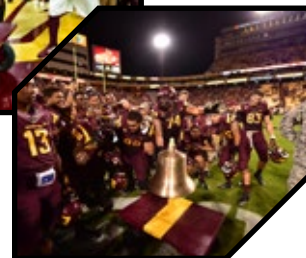

The original bell began at Arizona State Teachers College in the late 1930s as a dinner bell that hung in the dining hall and summoned students to meals. Shortly after, however, the bell started being sounded for athletic victories, thus becoming the Victory Bell.

Ringin the bell called students and fans to the stadium before each football game, and commemorated each win - the number of rings equaled the number of points scored by the Sun Devils.

However, in 1956, Senator Carl Hayden donated a piece of sandstone from the original White House, and as part of the christening ceremony for the opening of the Memorial Union, the bell was installed on this pedestal and given a place of honor on the west patio. The bell was removed some time in the 1970s when the Memorial Union was remodeled and disappeared from the Tempe campus.

The ASU Undergraduate Student Government purchased the new Victory Bell as a gift to the students, student-athletes, alumni, and supporters of Arizona State University in 2013. Cast in 1941 by the 19th century Meneely Bell Foundry, and 18.75 inches in diameter and 150 pounds, this bell closely resembles the original in both size and model.

It is mounted on a custom Maroon and Gold wagon, and is portable and will be present at all sporting venues to ring in victories. A Victory Bell Honor Guard, which will be made up primarily of ROTC students, has been established to accompany the bell when in public and at Sun Devil Athletics events.

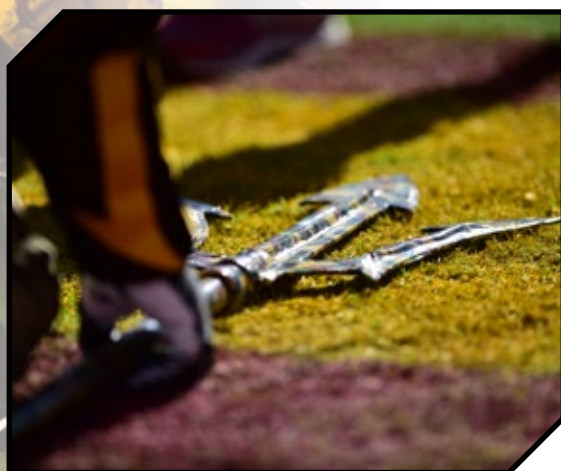

DEVIL WALK

The Devil Walk is an invaluable Sun Devil Gameday tradition. Fans, parents, and alumni show their Sun Devil Pride by cheering on Sun Devil players and coaches as they exit the team bus and walk toward Sun Devil Stadium for the day's game.

PITCHFORK

The pitchfork, long the accessory of choice for Sparky the Mascot, took over as the official school logo for the Sun Devils as part of a rebranding effort in 2011. An exclusive and contemporary mark, the pitchfork is now used consistently across all of our Sun Devil teams. Anytime someone sees the logo, they will instantly recognize it as Sun Devil Athletics.

Additionally, the pitchfork is well-represented among fans and student-athletes alike in the form of the iconic hand gesture seen on game day at all manners of Sun Devil sporting events. The Sun Devil football team also celebrates its team victories by spiking the pitchfork into the ground in front of the student section at the end of games prior to engaging in the fight song.

TERRITORIAL CUP

Thanks to a historic find in a church basement several years ago, Arizona State University and the University of Arizona can now claim the oldest intercollegiate rivalry trophy in the nation. The Territorial Championship Cup, which has been registered with the NCAA, was first presented to Tempe Normal School (now ASU) on Nov. 30, 1899 following an 11-2 victory over the University of Arizona at Tucson's Carillo Gardens Field.

The priceless Territorial Cup was lost for a time and was discovered several years ago in the basement of a church that was being demolished. According to the NCAA, the previous oldest trophy was the Michigan/Minnesota Little Brown Jug, which dates back to 1909. A replica of the cup will be displayed on the field at each year's Arizona-Arizona State football game, and the winning team in one of the nation's oldest and fiercest rivalries will be awarded the actual trophy to display in its Hall of Fame each year.

In addition to the Territorial Cup, there is an abundance of hardware handed out at each year's game. The Big Game Trophy, a sculpture by artist Ben Goo, which was the prize in the rivalry game from 1979 to 1997, is awarded to the game MVP to be displayed in the school's Hall of Fame. The award is now called the Bob Moran MVP Award, named after longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter Bob Moran, who covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist in his long and distinguished career. Also, the Saguaro Trophy, a bronze sculpture by artist Dora Perry, which served as the reward starting in 1998, is given to the coach of the winning team to display in his office for the year.

Arizona State has had a strong hold on the rivalry over the past 12 years, winning eight out of the last 13 contests but the series has been hotly contested as of late.

Five of the past six games have been decided by a grand total of 22 points, with a fourth-quarter comeback and two blocked extra points helping ASU to two of those victories while a late field goal and two last-minute defensive helping Arizona to three victory in that span. The lone exception to the close games came in a 27 point rout by the Sun Devils in 2013.

The 2015 contest will be the 89th Duel in the Desert, with Arizona leading the all-time series 48-39-1. This year's contest will take place on Friday, Nov. 21.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

THE CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

That same year, the Pac-12 also launched its Globalization Initiative to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student-athlete exchanges and sport. In the first four years, Pac-12 student-athletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in China, fielding full university and Pac-12 all-star teams in women's volleyball and men's basketball, with the first-ever men's basketball regular season game scheduled to be played in China between WASHINGTON and Texas to tip off the 2015-16 campaign. The Conference and its member schools have gained significant brand exposure for the future and set a foundation for growth.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions ®," claiming an incredible 140 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including nine in 2014-15, an average of nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 49 of the last 55 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the 10th-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most or tied for the most NCAA titles of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so seven times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 478 NCAA Championships (291 men's, 158 women's, 29 combined).

Pac-12 members have won 291 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 77 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 54 tennis titles, 47 outdoor track & field crowns, and 28 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 46 NCAA titles in volleyball, 41 of 46 in water polo, 29 in skiing, and 24 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,208) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,333 by male student-athletes. Student-athletes have also captured 174 individual titles at combined championships (i.e., skiing and fencing).

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 34 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 25 occasions, including 15-consecutive years from 2000-2015. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 158 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 97. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 21 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 16 of the last 26 trophies in golf, and 14 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 701 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD continued its remarkable run and won a remarkable 21st-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2014-15 leading the Pac-12 to an unprecedented 1-2-3 finish in the final standings. Seven Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-30 Division I programs, tying for the most of any conference, and five were in the top 15: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 2 UCLA, No. 3 USC, No. 12 CALIFORNIA and No. 13 OREGON. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 20 in all but one year of the Director's Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occasions (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

2014-15 REVIEW

The Conference's nine NCAA titles came in the form of four men's and four women's, and one combined team title. Five different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the seven NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles.

OREGON was one of only two programs in the country to win three NCAA titles this academic season. The Ducks successfully defended its indoor and outdoor NCAA Track & Field titles, and also won the women's outdoor crown for the first time in 30 years. It is the second straight year UO has won three national titles in an academic year. COLORADO and STANFORD each claimed a pair of titles, as well. The Buffaloes claimed the academic year's first NCAA title, taking home its second-straight men's cross country crown in dominating fashion, posting a 33-point margin of victory. Colorado then grabbed the hardware in skiing, their third in five years. STANFORD extended its streak of winning NCAA Championships to 39 years, winning the women's water polo championship for a second-straight year and the program's first-ever women's golf crown.

In addition to the nine national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in 11 NCAA Championship events: men's cross country (STANFORD), men's soccer (UCLA), men's water polo (USC), women's gymnastics (UTAH), men's gymnastics (STANFORD), men's swimming (CALIFORNIA), women's indoor track & field (OREGON), men's golf (USC), rowing (CALIFORNIA), women's tennis (UCLA) and women's water polo (UCLA). Overall, the Conference had 31 teams finish in the top four at 19 NCAA Championship events, including an all-Pac-12 women's water polo final four.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2014-15. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 20 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 67 of a possible 97 teams into the postseason (69.1 percent), while the women sent 79 of a possible 115 teams (68.7 percent).

Eight Pac-12 teams earned bowl bids with Pac-12 Champion OREGON reaching the inaugural College Football Playoff Championship Game. League teams produced a 6-3 record, equaling the record for wins achieved in 2013 when the Conference had a league-record eight teams play in bowl games for the second-straight year. Despite losing in the title game, the Ducks produced the only 13-win season on record in Pac-12 history. For the first time in league history, four teams won 10 or more games, while six had at least nine wins. A record-tying eight teams boasted a winning record for the third-consecutive year. UO claimed the Pac-12 crown for the second time in four years by virtue of a 51-13 win over South Division Champion ARIZONA. The Pac-12 Football Championship Game was held at a neutral site for the first time in the Game's brief four-year history and was played at the new Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif. The Wildcats went on to play in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. Also joining Oregon and UA in the postseason were UTAH (Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl), ARIZONA STATE (Hyundai Bowl), USC (National University Holiday Bowl), STANFORD (Foster Farms Bowl), UCLA (Valero Alamo Bowl) and WASHINGTON (TicketCity Cactus Bowl). Six Pac-12 teams appeared in the final Associated Press poll marking the second time in league history that six teams were in the final ranking. The teams in the top 25 were: Oregon (2), UCLA (10), Arizona State (12), Arizona (19), USC (20) and Utah (21).

Seven Pac-12 men's basketball teams participated in the postseason with ARIZONA earning the Conference's automatic bid after winning the tournament title at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas, the team's first tournament title since 2002. The Wildcats also captured their 14th regular-season crown. OREGON, UCLA and UTAH were also selected to play in the NCAA Tournament. The Bruins and Utes reached the Sweet Sixteen while the Wildcats advanced to the Elite Eight for the second straight year. For the second-straight year, Pac-12 teams had eight NCAA Tournament wins. ARIZONA STATE and STANFORD participated in the NIT, and the Cardinal swept through the postseason and won its third NIT crown and second in four seasons. COLORADO was a participant in the CBI.

The Pac-12 women's basketball season also produced historic moments, including OREGON STATE capturing the program's first-ever Pac-12 regular-season title also claiming the No. 1 seed in the Pac-12 Tournament at KeyArena in Seattle, Wash. It was the first time in the history of the event STANFORD was not the top seed. However, the Cardinal still went on to win its 11th Conference title as the No. 3 seed overall. Five league squads earned NCAA Tournament berths for the second-consecutive year, while two more participated in the WNIT with UCLA claiming its first-ever WNIT crown. ARIZONA STATE reached the Sweet Sixteen and CALIFORNIA and WASHINGTON also participated in the Big Dance. Four teams appeared in the final top-25 of the Associated Press poll: ASU (9), OSU (10), Stanford (14) and Cal (24). It marked the first time the Beavers were in the final poll since 1995-96. WASHINGTON STATE also made its second-straight postseason appearance, joining the Bruins in the WNIT.

Pac-12 volleyball also had an unprecedented season with a league-record 10 teams earning NCAA Tournament berths, a year after a then-league best nine teams advanced to the tournament in 2013. Five teams received a top-16 seed as STANFORD nabbed the top seed, while all 10 won their first-round match. The Pac-12 also set a new league record for most teams ranked in the final poll with nine teams appearing in the final AVCA top 25. The Cardinal won its 16th Pac-12 crown and advanced to the national semifinal for the first time since 2008 marking the 15th time in 17 years a Pac-12 team has advanced that far. With 15-straight years of at least six Conference teams earning NCAA bids, the Pac-12 has dominated the sport, winning a record 14 NCAA volleyball titles since 1982, including 12 in the last 24 years.

In baseball, UCLA won its third regular-season title in five years and were the No. 1 overall seed at the 64-team NCAA Tournament. Five additional teams earned bids: OREGON STATE, USC, CALIFORNIA, ARIZONA STATE and OREGON. The Trojans, Bruins and Bears each reached the NCAA Regional finals. UCLA was ranked No. 7 by Baseball America in its final poll, one of three Pac-12 teams in the publication's final top-25, joining No. 20 USC and No. 22 California. The Pac-12 has, by far, won the most baseball national titles of any conference in the country, claiming 28 titles dating back to 1947, including two of the last four when the league had back-to-back champions in 2012 (Arizona) and 2013 (UCLA).

Another sport in which the Pac-12 Conference has dominated is softball where league teams have claimed 23 NCAA titles in the 34-year history of the championship. Pac-12 teams captured an unprecedented nine in a row from 1988-1997, then most recently claimed six-straight from 2006-11. Seven teams participated in the tournament in 2015, marking the 19th-straight season the Pac-12 has had five or more teams advance to the postseason, and has had at least three berths every year since the league began sponsoring the sport in 1987. Pac-12 Champion OREGON and UCLA advanced to the NCAA Women's College World Series, while ARIZONA advanced as far as the Super Regional.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE HISTORY

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back nearly 100 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and the PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities (AAWU) was formed with Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premiere league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009, and was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, the University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978.

It was during that 2010-11 academic year that Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. In addition to expanding to 12 teams, member institutions agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in the Conference's history, created two divisions - the North and the South, for football only and established a Football Championship Game for the first time ever. He also secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, establishing the Pac-12 Networks and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 12 women's sports, with beach volleyball added in 2015-16. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco in the SOMA district.
